Truman Doctrine Before Big Four For First Time

Proposed Assistance To Trieste Results In Molotov Bringing Up Issue

PARLEY MAY BE NEARING FINALE

(BULLETIN)

MOSCOW, April 21.—(INS)—The Big Four Council of foreign ministers went into an unscheduled secret session today in a final attempt to break the Austrian treaty deadlock before disbanding.

The session was described as a "limited" one, which means that each of the Big Four ministers was flanked by a minimum staff of advisers.

By KINGSBURY SMITH
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

MOSCOW, April 21.—The Truman doctrine of American financial aid to European nations which might be drawn into the orbit of Communism entered the Big Four Moscow discussions for the first time today.

Addressing the council as the conference limped toward an unsatisfactory close, Soviet Minister Molotov questioned whether possible United State assistance to Trieste would lead to "interference in the internal affairs" of the newly-created free territory.

Follows Marshall's Comment

Molotov's challenge followed a comment by Secretary of State Marshall that the United States can supply foodstuffs to Trieste if Congress passes legislation to provide funds for relief purposes.

Shortly afterward, Molotov observed tartly that Russia "has a right to know whether external assistance will lead to external interference" in the home affairs of Trieste.

Marshall's comment came in the midst of a long wrangle over the precarious position of the Trieste

Department Of Interior Gets Big Fund Cut

By RAYMOND WILCOVE
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, April 21.—(INS)—The interior department reeled today under the impact of a 47 per cent cut in its funds for 1948 as the house appropriations committee swung the GOP economy axe with a vengeance.

The committee slashed the interior department's budget for the new fiscal year beginning July 1 from $322,531,220 to $183,649,313, a reduction of $138,881,907.

Hardest hit by the cut was the reclamation bureau, whose budget was reduced 57 per cent. Its request for $145,952,200 was trimmed to $62,717,600, a reduction of $83,234,600. However, the committee declared that an estimated unexpended balance of $85,826,767 next June $141,085,367.

Largest Percentage Cut

The committee stated that the 47 per cent cut in the interior department's funds "represents the largest percentage reduction made in any 1948 annual appropriation bill". It compares with a 40 per cent cut in the labor department's budget, a 34 per cent slash in the treasury department's operating funds, and less than one per cent for the postoffice department. Another eight departmental supply bills still remain to be acted upon.

The interior department cut, if sustained by the house, would bring in $1,134,980,177 the total reduction to date in President Truman's $37 1-2 billion dollar budget for 1948. The treasury-post office bill affected a cut of $897,272,750, while the labor-federal security agency measure reduced the president's estimates by $98,825,250.

The house has voted for a six billion dollar cut in the president's budget.

King Of Denmark Dies; Son Proclaimed King

KING CHRISTIAN X

KING FREDERIK IX

COPENHAGEN, April 21.—(INS)—A 48-year-old sailor and athlete succeeded to the throne of Denmark today as Frederik IX while the nation mourned the death of his father, 76-year-old King Christian X.

Christian, ruler for 35 years, died peacefully in his sleep shortly before midnight. Ill two weeks after being stricken by a heart attack, the popular ruler had lapsed into a coma eight hours earlier.

Before he lost consciousness, Christian breathed farewell to Queen Alexandrine, Frederik and 47-year-old Prince Knud.

Frederik Succeeds

Frederik immediately succeeded to the throne under the Danish constitution without a formal coronation.

As thousands of Danes looked on in Amalienborg Palace Square in Copenhagen before dawn Royal Life Guards carried out the traditional ceremony signalling the transfer of the army's allegiance to the new king.

A detachment carried two flags of the historic regiment across the Baroque Square from the palace of the dead king to the home of the son.

Frederik, one of Europe's best known amateur sailors and a veteran of the Danish navy, will be proclaimed king publicly at 4 p. m. from the balcony of Christianberg Palace by Premier Knud K. Kristtensen.

Continue Texas City Search For Victims

TEXAS CITY, Tex., April 21.—(INS)—Seemingly-tireless rescue workers returned to the blast-ravaged Texas City waterfront today to continue searching for disaster victims.

In the five days since an explosion aboard the French ship Grandcamp touched off a holocaust, the workers have recovered 416 bodies from the two-mile-long bay area.

A hundred bodies remained unidentified.

Officials said 195 persons still were missing. But, they cautioned, those unaccounted for were not to be considered dead. They said they were confident many of the missing would turn up, or be found among the injured.

The American Red Cross revealed that a great majority of those hurt in the series of blasts and fires were convalescing. Red Cross officials said about half of the 50 hospitalized would be released by tonight

Chicago And Philadelphia In Site Battle

KANSAS CITY, April 21.—(INS)—GOP leaders called the choice of their 1948 convention city "toss up" between Chicago and Philadelphia as the Republican National committee meeting opened in Kansas City today with a stinging attack on President Truman's "stop communism" plan.

Gov. Frank Carlson of Kansas provided the criticism of Democratic spending policies at home and abroad.

His address officially opening the two-day meeting was delivered against a background of informal discussion of the GOP presidential candidates and of the immediate convention city problem.

Maryland Man Is New York Suicide

NEW YORK, April 21.—(INS)—A man who registered at a Times Square hotel as Frank Jones of Greenbelt, Md., killed himself today by firing a single shot into his mouth with a German Luger.

His body, clad in pajamas, was found on the floor of his room today by a laundryman. Jones left a letter to Mrs. Eva Jones, who, police said, was his widow.

He stated in part:

"Everything in this world has gone wrong with me. I was either born 400 years ahead of time or 400 years behind time".

Truman Gives New Warning On High Prices

By ROBERT G. NIXON
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, April 21.—President Truman today warned business leaders that continuation of present high prices threatens the nation with an "economic cloudburst".

The chief executive declared economic collapse in the United States could bring disaster to the "Truman doctrine" program of aid to small nations resisting Communist domination, with ultimate threat to America's security.

At Editor's Luncheon

Mr. Truman chose the occasion of an annual luncheon of American newspaper editors at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel to make his first major speech assailing the "cloud shadowing our economic future".

The president attached high prices at his last news conference after convening a special cabinet meeting the previous day on the threatening situation.

Today, he bluntly told responsible business leaders:

"If we are to avoid a recession . . .

Must Be Brought Down

"Prices must be brought down.

"Present business conditions permit—in fact, they require—lower prices in many important fields.

"There is one sure formula for bringing on a recession or a depression.

"That is to maintain excessively high prices.

"Buying stops; production drops; unemployment sets in; prices collapse; profits vanish; businessmen fail".

The president asserted that prevention of an economic setback requires "prompt, preventing steps".

Capetown made the day the gayest of the two-month visit of the British royal family to South Africa.

The city declared a public holiday which was filled in with parades and ceremonials.

The plane crashed Saturday while on the Albuquerque-Denver leg of a routine training flight out of Muroc, Calif. Investigators said the wreckage of the army plane was scattered over a wide area.

The plane apparently struck the hillside while flying blind because of darkness and bad weather.

Major Powers In U.N. Seeking To Crack Deadlocks

To Tackle Formula On Global Disarmament And Choice Of Trieste Governor

By PIERRE J. HUSS
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., April 21.—The major powers in the United Nations today will try to crack the deadlocks blocking progress on global disarmament and on the ruling governor of Trieste.

The United States, Soviet Russia, France, Britain and China are scheduled to meet as the big five group at Lake Success this afternoon to work out a formula on disarmament for the commission on conventional armaments.

Immediately after that conference ends, China will retire and the big four will attempt to agree on a candidate for governor of the free territory and city of Trieste. The post has to be filled by the security council, which is responsible for guaranteeing the free territory's integrity.

Competent observers forecast further difficulties in solving both problems satisfactorily and continued deadlocks unless both western and eastern factions sacrifice some of their demands and seek a compromise.

Seek Disarmament Plan

In seeking a working plan for disarmament, the United States and Soviet Russia again stand in diametrically opposed directions roughly representing the east and west blocks. The United States and her supporters maintain that a system of safeguards and an armed U. N. force must precede either conventional or atomic disarmament. Russia insists on an immediate arms scrapping and outlawing of atom weapons.

On the Trieste governor's choice, the search for an acceptable man was held up nearly six months due

Steel Wage Pact May Be Pattern In Phone Strike

WASHINGTON, April 21.—(INS)—The wage agreement in "Big Steel" offered the possible pattern today for settlement of the 15-day-old walkout of 340,000 telephone workers.

As the communications tie-up entered its third week, government labor officials hoped to see AT&T and the National Federation of Telephone Workers strike a bargain along the lines of the agreement between U. S. Steel and the CIO Steel Workers calling for a wage increase of slightly in excess of 15 cents an hour.

Would Mean About Half

Settlement of the phone dispute on such a basis would mean granting the NFTW about half of its original demand for a $12 a week pay boost while other issues could be left to arbitration or negotiation.

When news of the steel agreement came from Pittsburgh, Telephone Union Leader Joseph A. Beirne declared:

"The AT&T hasn't any argument left unless they are out to break the union. In earlier bargaining sessions, they said 'We are a public utility and cannot move until a pattern takes shape.'

"That pattern has now taken shape. It is up to the company to move. It looks like everybody in the United States must get a raise before the company decides to give us one."

Thus far that AT&T and its subsidiary Bell companies have made no offer to the union on its wage demands except to express a willingness to submit the issue to local or regional arbitration.

U. S. Conciliation Director Edgar L. Warren hailed the steel wage agreement but said he was uncertain as to its immediate effect in the telephone case.

Local Flier Hurt In Plane Crash

After crashing through a tree, where it lost the largest part of one wing, then striking the ground 188 feet farther on with its nose and other wing tip, this plane turned two somersaults, and finally came to rest, a heap of junk, as the picture shows. The pilot, William Siebanoller, of 101 Smithfield street, unbuckled his safety straps and crawled out of the plane, bruised and dazed. Pfc. F. J. Norris of the Pennsylvania State police is shown examining the wreckage after crash.

William Siebanoller, aged 29 years, of 101 Smithfield street, is alive today only because of two miraculous circumstances after the plane he was piloting, a two-seater Ryan monoplane, crashed on the S. M. Veach farm, near Frizzleburg, seven miles west of the city, just before six o'clock Saturday night. Siebanoller is in the Jameson Memorial hospital suffering from shock, severe bruises of the shoulders and chest, and a laceration of the forehead.

The fact that Siebanoller was operating the plane from the rear seat and that his safety straps held, is

Conservative Trend In Japan's Election

By HOWARD HANDLEMAN
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

TOKYO, April 21—A pronounced conservative trend was apparent today in returns from nationwide elections for the House of Councillors, the new upper chamber of Japan's Diet (parliament).

First conclusive returns from yesterday's voting showed twenty members of the Conservative parties elected as against thirteen Social Democrats.

The Conservative edge however was substantially larger than these returns indicated because most of twenty-three independents thus far shown to have been elected actually are Conservatives, though unlabeled.

Tally on the ballots showed also that up until later afternoon, the Japanese Communist party was trailing badly in all voting districts. Thus far, no Communist candidate had won a seat in the upper house.

Incomplete returns indicated an estimated sixty per cent of Japan's registered voters went to the polls in the nation's first balloting for the upper parliamentary chamber.

Conservatives and Independents took an early lead over Left-Wing candidates. Of the first seventeen metropoltan areas reporting, fifteen showed the Conservatives and Independents well ahead of their rivals.

Tsundeo Matsudaira, internationally noted Conservative Independent, scored a smashing victory in winning the councillor's seat from Fukushima

British Troops Under Attack In Jerusalem

JERUSALEM, April 21.—(INS)—The Jewish underground carried out three separate attacks on British military vehicles today with grenades, land mines and small arms.

Two jeeps carrying soldiers were ambushed in a narrow street of the Bucharim quarter of Jerusalem. The attackers threw grenades while hidden riflemen fired on the soldiers from windows on both sides of the street.

The soldiers took cover and returned the fire.

Three persons suspected of taking part in the attack were arrested.

An official announcement denied reports that two of the soldiers were wounded.

The number of British casualties in the past 24 hours rose to 11 when a soldier was wounded as a military lorry traveling in a convoy was blown up north of Hadera by a land mine.

Thirty miles west of Jerusalem another military vehicle detonated a land mine but the driver was reported uninjured.

The continuing violence brought fear to the Jewish population that martial law would be re-imposed.

For the second time since Dov Gruner and three other members of the Irgun Zvai Leumi died on the gallows, the Jewish underground attacked the British convalescent station near Nathanya.

APPROVE FUNDS TO DEFRAY EXPENSES OF W.C.T.U. MEET

WASHINGTON, April 21.—(INS)—The house foreign affairs committee has approved a $5,000 congressional appropriation to help defray expenses of an international Women's Christian Temperance Union convention in the United States.

The committee in approving the appropriation overrode a budget bureau warning which declared that such action might establish an "undesirable precedent."

The budget bureau noted that approval of the fund might result in requests for similar assistance from other non-governmental organizations.

Offers Pour In To Give New Dog To Blind Teacher

PHILADELPHIA, April 21.—(INS)—Offers of aid poured in today upon Mrs. Marjorie Crumrine, blind teacher of the blind whose seeing-eye dog "Boots" died of poison last week.

Howard Getson of Philadelphia brought his two-year-old German shepherd dog "Gem" to Mrs. Crumrine's home and offered to turn him over to her.

A member of the North Penn Lions club said he would ask the club either to pay for Gem's training or buy another dog for the blind instructress.

But training a seeing-eye dog takes time—and meanwhile 40 sightless students wait in vain for Mrs. Crumrine to come to their homes in Montgomery, Chester and Delaware counties.

"Boots" died in convulsions last Thursday after romping around the grounds of the Overbrook school for the blind.

The Philadelphia Inquirer offered a $1,000 reward for the arrest and conviction of the poisoner, if it were proved deliberate.

Central Japanese City Is Destroyed By Raging Flames

TOKYO, April 21—(INS)—More than 15,000 persons were left homeless today by a fire which swept through the city of Iida in central Japan, destroying an estimated 3,000 homes and causing some $20,000,000 in damage.

Casualties were still unannounced although a check was being made by Japanese authorities. The blaze flashed through the city in Nagano Prefecture (province) yesterday.

The U. S. Eighth Army, announcing the damage, said that a two weeks' food supply had been prepared for the stricken city but it was still undecided whether military government teams would be dispatched to help with rescue work.

The homeless of the city of 33,000 were being billeted in nearby schools.

The fire caused a cancellation of the voting in the house of councillors election as most of the polling stations were destroyed. A new election in the area was set for April 25.

Steel Workers' Strike Threat Is Eliminated

Announce C. I. O. And U. S. Steel Corporation Agree On New Wage Contract

WORKERS TO RECEIVE 15 CENTS HOUR BOOST

By NORMAN AGATHON
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

PITTSBURGH, April 21.—The CIO-United Steel Workers wage-policy committee today is expected to ratify the 15-cent an hour wage increase granted production workers at five U. S. Steel Corp. plants. Ratification of the agreement will bring peace to an industry that less than 48 hours ago was threatened with a nation-wide strike.

President Philip Murray and other top union officials brought the 1947 contract negotiations to a quick, successful conclusion yesterday—just eight days before the present contract expired.

The biggest part of the new contract was agreed on in a closed conference between Murray and Vice-President Jonn A. Stephens of U. S. Steel, labor leaders declared.

Indicate Approval

Union officials indicated the powerful 174-man wage-policy committee would approve the pact. It is expected to be signed Tuesday.

Labor observers in Pittsburgh, the largest steel producing center in the nation, were agreed that the new contract will pave the way for the entire industry. Other steel companies are expected to follow the "Big Steel" pattern.

Murray said the new agreement will run for two years, with a wage reopening clause after the first year.

The union chieftain disclosed the new contract actually amounts to a 12½ cent hourly raise for production workers, with the remainder being used to cover elimination of inequities, improved vacations and the reduction of geographical differentials.

Severance Pay Clause

Also included in the new pact, Murray said, is a severance pay clause, established for the first time in history of the steel industry. It also provides for union security through maintenance of membership and the check-off.

The USW president said both the union and corporation officials have agreed to a joint study for a broad social insurance and a seniority program. The studies are to be completed by November 1.

U. S. Steel President Benjamin F. Fairless said the agreement will result in an estimated $75,000,0000 a year in employment costs.

Fairless said the union has agreed that no portal-to-portal pay will be granted workmen for walking time or time spent in preparatory for the job.

Existing portal-to-portal suits, totaling more than $500,000,000, are expected to be dropped, union of-

President Goes To New York City

WASHINGTON, April 21—(INS)—President Truman left Washington early today for a one-day trip to New York where he will deliver one of his most important domestic speeches this year.

Mr. Truman's special train pulled out of the Capital at 7:55 a. m. shortly after an early morning downpour had ended. He was speaker before a group of newspaper editors at an annual luncheon this afternoon.

Arthur Mometer

You haven't got time to visit that friend who is ill on a hospital bed, but there's cards you can send or some posies, perhaps, or some of those books you have read. It takes little time to just mail a short note; you don't have to go out of your way, but it helps kill the boredom of hospital beds (it's forty-seven today) that had to go in before I get through, but the point I would like to get through is remember that friend who is trying to get well, and the person I mean is just you.

Fairless Hopes For Increased Work Efficiency

PITTSBURGH, April 21.—(INS)—U. S. Steel President Benjamin Fairless said today in order to avoid a price increase in steel the corporation was "counting heavily on United Steelworkers to absorb new costs through increased efficiency."

The steel corporation executive said the new wage agreement with the union will directly result in an estimated increased payroll of $75,000,000 annually, adding:

"We must count heavily on the acceptance of our employes of their obligations to help absorb these new costs through improved and increased efficiency."

U. S. Steel spokesman in Pittsburgh said Fairless apparently was referring to the 15-cent-an-hour wage increase granted the CIO-Steelworkers union yesterday.

Fairless said adjustments would be made promptly for salaried employes not covered by the new contract.

Throughout the industry workers generally rejoiced that another crippling steel strike had been averted. They appeared pleased with the dollar-a-day pay hike and happy because their work would continue uninterrupted.

ficials said. The new contract stipulates that the union will not make any new claims or support existing or future claims.

Murray said the new pay raise is in addition to the 5.18 cent an hour hike made in February to eliminate inequities. He said the new scale will mean an increase in excess of 20 cents an hour since the first of the year, and a 38½ cent boost since February, 1946.

Southern differentials are reduced by three cents an hour, Murray said, instituted under the inequity program, and under the new wage scale are increased from three and a half to four cents in each classification.

Under the new two-year agreement all employes whose present wage rate is an excess of their job classification, will retian the present rate plus the general increase.

The severance pay clause provides for dismissal pay ranging from four weeks pay for three years of service to eight weeks for 10 years, to any employe displaced by a department shutdown or the discontinuance of a department.

Instead of the annual guaranteed wage, the USW chief said, labor-management officials agreed upon a scheduled that will assure a greater degree of regularity in work.

Vacation improvements include three weeks with pay for employes with 25 years of service. The present system of one week for one year and two weeks for five years is continued.

Murray reported improvement in the non-economic phases as well as the so-called economic phases of the contract.

Thousands Greet President Truman In New York City

NEW YORK, April 21.—(INS)—Thousands of New Yorkers turned out today to see President Truman on his first visit to the city since last fall despite a heavy and chilling rain.

Mr. Truman arrived in New York at Pennsylvania Station at 11:27 a. m. EST., to deliver a major address to the nation. He was to speak at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel at a luncheon of the Associated Press at 2 p. m. over all the major networks.

After driving through New York, he checked into the tower suite Winston Churchill occupied on his last visit to New York.

Vaccinated Saturday

The president's medical aide, Brig. Gen. Wallace Graham, disclosed that Mr. Truman was vaccinated against small pox on Saturday as a precaution against the recent outbreak of the disease in New York.

Mr. Truman was vaccinated last in 1936 and it didn't "take," indicating the president may have a natural immunity.

The president and his party drove to the hotel in closed cars, substituting, a large black limousine for a big open touring car at the last minute because of the rain.

Accompanying Mr. Truman were Adm. William D. Leahy, his personal chief of staff; secretary of the treasury Snyder, and presidential aides and secretaries.

The president had a private reception at 12:30.

area. He said that "the United States is deeply desirous of seeing the free territory become economically self-supporting."

Soviet "Apprehension"

Molotov spoke of Soviet "apprehension" over any such assistance and asserted that "external interference would be undesirable."

The Trieste dissension came shortly after a senior member of the American delegation told correspondents that the major controversial issues of the German treaty will be put on ice for three or four months.

He commented that "it may be a good thing to let the hot issues cool off for a few months" to "give the Soviets time to think things over."

A desire on the part of the Western Allies to break up the conference soon was evident.

French Foreign Minister Bidault, who wants to go back to Paris on Wednesday, proposed that the Big Four deputies turn in a report on Trieste tomorrow night.

Must Study Matter

To this suggestion Molotov retorted:

"French tempo is going beyond all limits . . . the ministers must study this matter and arrive at decisions. The council cannot shirk its responsibilities."

Secretary Marshall complained that Molotov was trying to impose upon the council at its current meeting "a time-consuming operation which I do not think justified."

However, Marshall agreed to refer the matter to the deputies, and a report will be turned in either tomorrow or Wednesday afternoon. With regard to deferment for the present of the most bitterly-contested controversial issues, the American spokesman said:

Let Issues Cool

"It may be a good thing to let the hot issues cool off for a few months and give the Soviets time to think things over.

"Three or four months from now they may begin to realize that it would serve Russia's interests better to cooperate with the western powers in a united settlement of the German problem. Otherwise they might be confronted with a partition which would lead to a much greater and more impressive economic development in the western part of Germany than Russia will be able to carry out in the eastern part.

This substantiation of fears that the Big Four would quit Moscow without major progress toward a German settlement came as the foreign ministers resumed deliberations on an Austrian treaty in a pessimistic atmosphere.

It is believed that today's deliberations will determine whether a concrete agreement on an Austrian treaty will be possible at the present conference.

Unless the Soviets show a new disposition for conciliation, it was said, the conference will close in a few days.

French Foreign Minister Bidault already has indicated a desire to leave Moscow by Wednesday.

LOCAL FLIER HURT IN CRASH

believed to have been what saved his life. That he was not more seriously injured is almost unbelievable. After crashing through the tree and breaking off limbs three inches in diameter, where one wing was ripped to pieces, the plane traveled 188 feet before it struck the ground, took a bounce when it struck on its nose and wing tip, hit the ground again 45 feet farther on and then came to rest 123 feet farther. It turned over twice, according to a resident of the district who witnessed the crash. The engine was torn loose and hurled 21 feet from the final resting place of the plane.

Siebanoller unbuckled the safety straps and crawled out of the plane in a dazed condition. He was taken to the Jameson Memorial hospital, where he was able to walk into the institution. Examination there showed no broken bones, but he lapsed into unconsciousness for a brief period.

Today he seems greatly improved, it was stated at the hospital.

According to the report made to Pfc. F. J. Norris of the Pennsylvania state police, who investigated the crash, Siebanoller had taken off at the local airport just six minutes before the crash, bound for Youngstown. He had zoomed down toward the ground and went to put his plane into an upward climb, but the engine stalled and before he could recover control it struck the tree.

Pfc. Rugh of the Greensburg barracks of the Pennsylvania state police is expected to arrive here today to conduct an examination into the circumstances for the federal authorities.

The plane, according to its registry, was owned by William L. McGuire of 1021 Rose avenue, a brother-in-law of Siebanoller's. It had been sold to him by Siebanoller only a short time ago, it is stated.

CONTINUE TEXAS CITY SEARCH FOR VICTIMS

Texas University Medical School at John Sealy hospital in Galveston, said very few of those remaining in hospitals were in critical condition.

He could give no over-all figures, but said there were only five or six serious cases in Sealy hospital.

Dr. Leake added:

Few Of Injured Die

"Deaths occurring after the injured were taken to hospitals were not great. Of the 400 taken to Galveston, only 12 died".

Dr. Harold Wood of St. Louis, deputy medical director of the Red Cross midwestern area, said that war gained experience aided in the speedy handling of the injured.

He explained:

"The pattern of injuries duplicated experiences during the war, and many of the workers were only recently released from service. The management of casualties followed military precedent.

"Among the survivors, two patterns of injuries were recognized. Those within buildings suffered multiple perforating wounds, especially from splintered glass, and major contusions or crushing injuries.

"Those in the open suffered blast effects and compound injuries from flying missiles. Fatal injuries among those brought out alive were due to major contusions or crush".

Fumes escaping from a huge naphtha tank at the Republic Refinery Co. brought new fear to the still-nervous community yesterday.

However, safety inspectors reported that there was little danger of a new explosion since the tank had been pumped below the leak.

Only one fire still burned in the devastated area. That was in a 25,000-gallon zenzol storage tank on Monsanto Chemical Co. property. Officials said the flames probably would burn themselves out without causing further damage.

Two truck loads of troops speeding to the camp to repel the attack were blown up when the vehicles detonated land mines. Four more soldiers were wounded.

Thousands of troops were called out to seal off the main highway between Haifa and the all-Jewish city of Tel Aviv.

The convalescent camp was attacked last Friday. A truckload of Jewish fighters shot a sentry to death and tossed a bomb into an orderly room.

THE END OF HELGOLAND

Germans at Cuxhaven were reported by their Mayor as "very bitter" because the British blasted the steel and concrete U-boat pens and other fortifications of the tiny islet of Helgoland "off the map" with 7500 tons of explosives.

We should give some passing thought to that "bitterness." Helgoland was a German symbol; part of the ruthless goosesteps of Teutonic aggression that cursed the world in two wars.

It was a symbol for the British, too. Their statesmen were not canny when, in 1890, they ceded the 134-acre islet to Kaiser Wilhelm II for recognizing British claims to the African island of Zanzibar. The War Lord turned Helgoland into a "Gibraltar of the North Sea." To Britain it has been "a pistol pointed at the heart of England" ever since.

Under Hitler even 1000-plane raids couldn't demolish its U-boat lairs. British determination to erase the menace of Helgoland is consequently understandable, although in this atomic age the isle would seem to convey the menace of a pop-gun, rather than a lethal weapon.

But, considering the "bitterness" announced by the Burgomeister of Cuxhaven, perhaps it's just as well the big blowoff occurred. There are still fanatics dreaming in Germany. If they ever got started the now eradicated fortress of Helgoland could have been part of the next nightmare of war "made in Germany."

TWO ARBITRATION LAWS

The operation of the Indiana and New Jersey laws providing for compulsory arbitration in labor disputes involving public utilities is being watched by the entire country. In Indiana telephone workers who are seeking higher pay have remained at work on the theory that the Indiana law compels them to submit the differences to arbitration. In New Jersey national strike leaders overruled a suggestion that the employees in that state return to work, 12,000 are striking, and an immediate court test of this act's validity is being made.

One of the chief's differences between the Indiana and New Jersey laws is in the severity of penalties. The New Jersey statute levies a fine $10,000 a day against the union to which utility strikers belong and a fine of $250 to $500 a day against individual strikers. Jail sentences of 30 days may be added. Each day on strike constitutes a separate offense.

Penalties in the Indiana law are directed against individuals rather than organized groups. "Any violation of this act by any member of a group of employees acting in concert," it says, "or by any employer or any officer of an employer acting for such employer, or by any other individual," constitutes a misdemeanor to be punished by a fine of $500 to $2,500 "and by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months."

IT NO LONGER FITS

Congress probably will agree with President Truman that Section 12 of the Neutrality Act of 1939 should be scrapped. It provides that every application for an arms export license must be granted, unless in violation of a treaty, and, as he says, it therefore compels the Secretary of State to "treat aggressor and aggrieved, peacemaker and troublemaker equally." Obiously it no longer meets requirements of this nation.

The President is right in pointing out that, in the event of a future crisis, it would be intolerable for the government to be bound by law to aid a potential enemy.

Nevertheless, the proposed legislation to supersede Section 12 should be carefully scrutinized. The President has observed that weapons are "weights in the balances of peace and war" and, for that very reason, Congress should do what it can to insure that the executive department will use these weights with caution. If the President is given wide discretion, it should be possible to set up limits that will guard it against misuse.

MEDICINE OR SURGERY?

Charles De Gaulle's emergence from political eclipse is the big talk in London as well as in Paris. The British papers want to know what the general's intentions are in returning to public life and some of them doubt whether his plans embrace any constitutional procedure.

The incapacity of the uneasy coalition government of Paul Ramadier to put French affairs in order has made Frenchmen ready listeners to their erstwhile saviour who has embarked on a speaking campaign against the constitution of the Fourth Republic. In urging revision of the constitution, De Gaulle of course is exercising the right of any Frenchman, but his fellow countrymen are wondering whether he proposes to wait until the next elections in 1951 to accomplish his ends.

With France in delicate political health as a result of the gymnastics of the communists something akin to a coup is feared.

Russian consul in New York says the Russian people don't want war. No matter what they want, they will take whatever Stalin gives 'em.

Washington Calling

Stassen Listening On Tour Of Europe

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Anyone seeking a model of how an American citizen concerned with world affairs should conduct himself when traveling abroad has only to look at former Gov. Harold Stassen of Minnesota. During his trip in Europe, Stassen is listening to what Europeans say to him rather than trying to tell them what to think. The contrast with another American traveler, who is also in the news, is striking.

During his stay of nearly three weeks in the Soviet Union, Stassen took advantage of every opportunity to talk with the men who control Russia's destiny. He interviewed not Stalin alone but a dozen of the top figures.

Will Have Information

This is a privilege that no American of stature has had in a long time. On his return, Stassen should be able to give us a new glimpse of the vast power about which we know so little. Any move such as this which contributes to mutual knowledge is invaluable in a period when so many clamorous voices cry doom and disaster.

One of the questions Stassen took up with Stalin was that of censorship of American news reports out of Russia. While the two men were worlds apart on the subject of freedom of information, at least they exchanged ideas on a subject that has caused bad feeling on both sides of the great divide.

In England, the big, broad-shoulered Minnesotan with the calm, poised manner will conduct himself just as he did in Russia. That is to say, he will be out to learn what he can about the condition of Socialist Britain. He will talk to men in government and men in the street more or less as Wendell Willkie did on his famous visit after his defeat in 1940.

This journey is a measure of Stas-

IMPORTANCE OF EDUCATION

"I should appreciate it if you would offer me some suggestions regarding the educations regarding the education of my daughter. My problem is as follows: She will graduate from high school in June. All during high school she has been an honor pupil, ranking among the highest in the class. It was our intention to have her major in English or Latin, so as to be able to teach as this has always been her desire; but now the financial picture of my family is greatly changed due to the fact that my husband was a casualty of the war. With this daughter and a younger one to rear, I find that we must forego a great many of the things we had planned for. I may be able to see her through a two-year course of some kind that would train her to be self-supporting but I am at a loss to think of anything that would be suitable. She might win a scholarshihp to college but even so I am uncertain as to whether I can do without her financial help for four more years. It is for this reason I should like to learn what fields may be open to young women which would require a two year course of some kind other than a business course.

Answer: Your letter has me baffled but I shall do my best to give you all possible help, for I sympathize with you greatly. First of all: If your daughter is as studious as you indicate, it is a tragedy for her to be deprived of further education. Try your best somehow to get her a scholarship to college; and if she is so fortunate as to win one, by all means let her take advantage of it even if you have to scrimp to do so and even if she must find a part-time job to help support herself. A college eductaion is, today, almost essential.

Talk over your problem with her teacher who will be able to advise you, particularly in search of a scholarship. If you see your way clear only to sending her to college for two years, do so. Her accumulated credits may be applied to further study at a later date if she should have the inclination and opportunity to work for a degree.

WATER

Water is a very important part of the body. If all the water were taken out, there would not be much left.

Sometimes the body gets damaged in some way so that it cannot take proper care of water.

The tissues sometimes become water-logged. Sometimes some of the large cavities in the body get filled with fluid. This condition is known as dropsy.

There are many causes for dropsy. It may be caused by heart trouble or kidney trouble. It may be due to disease of the liver or to improper diet.

Sometimes the dropsy begins with a puffiness of the eyes in thhe morning. Sometimes it starts with swelling of the ankles in the evening.

Any of these signs should have medical attention promptly. Early treatment sometimes prevents a lot of trouble.

NURSING GOOD PROFESSION FOR THE SHY

Any person who suffers from shyness and loneliness can gain some relief and win some self improvement in social courage through being able to do some things very well. And when such achievement involves enjoyment with others or satisfaction from genuine service to others, achiever gains in feelings of worthwhileness—grows in social courage and personality.

It seems to me that nursing affords a timid girl a good field in which to build up self-regard and to have an opportunity to feel at ease with the sick or ailing person she cares for. She knows she has skil at her work. She, therefore, need not fear the necessary talk with the patient. Moreover, this experience should enable her to make some conversation with the patient. There remains, of course, the problem of learning to be comfortable and likable among other nurses and other persons of her age of both sexes. Yet by getting social satisfaction from her work this larger social adaptation should, to some degree, grow easier for her. Here is a letter from a young girl:

Entered Nursing

"Dear Dr. Myers: I am almost 19 years old. Last September I entered nurses' training. I find that I do not seem to express myself well. Out of 70 girls here I do not have one I can call my friend. I do have a few intimate friends elsewhere and I also have an uncle and younger brother who fairly idolize me.

"Now Doctor, how can you explain this fault of mine of not making friends and having everyone I meet take a dislike to me? Also I am very sensitive, my feelings being easily hurt, although I don't think anyone knows this because I wouldn't let anyone, especially somebody I didn't like, see just how much they hurt me. This sensitiveness is due in part to the constant quarreling of my parents with each other. I am also self-conscious to some extent and nervous.

"Now the question I should like to ask you is this: Considering my inability to make friends and lack in personality would you advise me to remain in training?"

Stay In Training

In answering this young woman, I wrote about as follows: Unless for physical reasons your doctor should advise your quitting the training, you should stick to it and make up your mind you are going to discipline yourself to overcome, to some degree at least, the difficulties you think you have.

As I said at the outset of this article, you should gain in social courage and likableness as you master the skills of your profession. While the quarreling of your parents has been a handicap to you.

One Man's Opinion

Congress has a busy week ahead—17 million lend-lease to Russia and 400 million to Greece and Turkey to stop Russia.

If this seems like peculiar politics—it's only because it's true.

I understand Marshall cabled from Moscow "let's stop this appeasement—send 'em 17 more million".

Anyway the UEW gives us signs of labor peace at home—it is taking the bird in the hand in preference to the bunion in the picket line.

Reuther says GM WAW members need more than GM UEW members—a phenomenon I shall not attempt to explain.

TIME WASTED

There are a lot of Congressmen—Senators particularly—who waste a lot of time trying to gain access to certain records now presumed to have been kept in the secret files of Franklin Delano Roosevelt. They investigated Pearl Harbor. They wanted to know "how-come" Japan fell upon Pearl Harbor without any previous warning that they had any idea of war up their sleeve. They thought they could find out something if they gained access to these secret files.

And now they think there is much hidden in these same files that could be illuminated on the secrecy with which Mr. Roosevelt carried on our foreign relations or the private deals he made with Churchill and Stalin. And the fact that the late Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau has published a book in which he utilized certain documentary papers of the Treasury Department, has started several members of both Houses on the war path.

From Me To You

By MESEEALL

This is another week . . . not a usual week . . . for it has been set aside by proper authority and will be known from coast to coast and border to border as WORLD FELLOWSHIP WEEK . . . as some one has so wisely put the issue . . . we now are choosing between Amity Bonds . . . and Atom Bombs.

What must you do to celebrate World Fellowship Week . . . that need not be difficult to understand. Fellowship should be on the tongue tip of every good red blooded American citizen. There are some in our communities who are not in a position to be classified under the above classification . . . it's the duty of every man, woman and child who holds the United States Dear to make a point of practicing Fellowship.

Yesterday was a day that we would like to forget . . . that is it was a day some years ago that was a dark day for this old world. The day some years ago became known as the birthdate for a guy that caused us some untold suffering . . . yes, it was the 20th day of April that hitler was born. We can "celebrate" his birthday by all joining hands and prevent another of his type of ever again plunging humanity into yet more horrible torture, suffering, starvation and death . . . yes, we can't afford to forget that little man with the mustache.

In case you are interested this is the 19th Annual World Fellowship Week and it is also the second anniversary of the formation of the United Nations Organization . . . may your prayers for the men sitting in on the UNO, be answered and that peace will truly be something that we can count on in the years to follow.

Here in New Castle nothing special has been arranged for the Celebration of Fellowship Week . . . it's as we mentioned before . . . up to each individual to show his cooperation by practical application of the true meaning of the word fellowship.

* * *

So let's get busy and start the week . . . let's work together and see how the situation changes.

Looking At Life

By Erich Brandeis

I had fully intended to write an inspirational column for you during the Easter season.

But I really couldn't find anything to write about.

How could I compete with all the ministers who were giving you messages of resurrection and glory?

How could I match the fashion editors who told you all about the new Easter hats and suits and dresses, or the lively stories of the reporters who told you about the Easter parades in New York and Los Angeles and Chicago and your own community?

How could I possibly give you anything one-thousandth as effective as the gospel of Easter itself

So I simply passed it up and enjoyed my own Easter by going to church in the morning and loafing the rest of the day.

But less than a half hour ago I heard a little Easter story that I must pass on to you—even though it is two weeks late—because it is such a good illustration of the real meaning of Easter.

Florence McIntyre told it to me. She's one of our editors whom I have known more years than she or I would want to admit, and whom I admire very much.

Florence has a son, Bob, who recently returned from the war and who left a bride behind when they sent him overseas.

While he was in Europe a little girl was born to them.

Like all young fathers, Bob is crazy about the baby, and like all young mothers, Mary, the wife, doesn't think much of Bob's efficiency as a father, and whenever he picks up little Lynn she is scared to death that he might drop her.

Easter came. Florence, the mother, lives about 50 miles away from Bob's home and couldn't go out to see him. But she called him up Easter Sunday evening and asked him what kind of holiday he and his family had had.

"Mother," said Bob, and there was exultation in his voice. "I have had the finest Easter I ever had in my life. As a matter of fact, I have had the nicest day I ever had in my life."

"What is it?" asked Florence.

"Why, mother, Mary let me take Lynn out all by myself, and for more than two hours I wheeled her up and down the streets in her baby carriage. And did the people admire her and tell me what a wonderful baby she is!"

I don't think I have to say any more. I don't think I have to explain to you why I consider this such a wonderful Easter message.

Mind you, Bob is a manly guy. He went through fire and danger. He has several decorations for bravery.

But the most wonderful day of his life was when his wife let him take the baby out all by himself!

I think that if Christ listened to that telephone conversation between mother and son, he must have been glad on this Easter day.

JOURNEY'S BEST

"What pleased you best throughout your trip?"
A loved-one asked of me.
"It's good," said I, "from care to slip
And light of heart to be,
But every time that I have strayed
To mountain, plain or shore,
The best of every journey made
Was getting home once more."

The moon upon the palms at night
Is beautiful to see.
There's always grandeur to delight
Whate'er the place may be;
But though I've been this land around
My courage to restore,
The best of every trip, I've found,
Was getting home once more.

'Tis wholesome wearied nerves to rest
And good new friends to find,
But home with all it holds is best,
For there is peace of mind,
And there are smiles I long to see
As open swings the door,
And so the best of joys for me
Is getting home once more.

Some Sound Advice From Baruch

WASHINGTON, April 21.—THE excuse for recalling some of the exceedingly sound advice which Mr. B. M. Baruch, from time to time, has given this country and its rulers, and which, to the great loss of both, has not been followed, is that he has done it again.

THERE are several reasons Mr. Baruch's counsel always carries weight even when rejected—as it usually is. One is that he rarely gives it unsought; another is that subsequent events have abundantly proved he knew exactly what he was talking about; a third is that he is that rare bird, a completely disinterested man with no personal ax to grind. Diligent analysis of all Mr. Baruch's public activities, by both friendly and unfriendly agents, has not revealed he ever wanted anything for himself—which is a lot to say of any man.

THERE is no space here to list all of his untaken counsels, but a few selected cases should be enough. Back in 1934, Mr. Roosevelt, who, during 1932, had eloquently inveighed against deficit financing and unbalanced budgets, became an enthusiastic convert to the theory of spending our way back to prosperity. He consulted Mr. Baruch about ways and means. Mr. Baruch thought the idea sound—with one provision. Ask Congress for all the millions you want for public works, relief, etc., he urged, but make one unbreakable rule—to wit, every appropriation must carry its compensating tax. In other words, if Congress knew that for every million it appropriated it had to provide a million in taxes, the budget balance would be held, the Federal finances remain stable and no deficits created.

MR. ROOSEVELT thought that suggestion wonderful, agreed heartily, but almost immediately dropped it because the compensating taxes were too strongly opposed. The net result was that we were launched upon the world's greatest spending spree and a long period of piling up debts and deficits, until when we entered the war our fiscal structure was anything but steady. That was one instance. Another came after we got into the war when Mr. Baruch strongly urged upon Mr. Roosevelt the necessity of a single-headed War Production Board. This, for reasons of his own. Mr. Roosevelt disregarded, created a board with a dual command—Mr. Sidney Hillman representing labor and Mr. William Knudson industry. Of course, it did not work, but eighteen months were lost before Mr. Roosevelt finally put the Baruch idea into effect.

IT was Mr. Baruch, too, who when the Office of Price Control was first created, pointed out that prices could not be kept down unless a ceiling was put on wages as well as on food, clothes and rent. This was so obvious that it was hard to see how anyone could dissent. Nevertheless, the influence of the CIO at the White House was such that that, too, was rejected and a pretty awful muddle ensued, costly to the country and detrimental to the war effort. After the war, Mr. Baruch was opposed to the repeal of the excess-profits tax. His suggestion was to reduce that tax ten per cent the first year and then ten per cent more for each of the next nine years. His argument was that in a time of such inevitable prosperity the sums thus realized would practically pay off the national debt, great as it is, in ten years.

INSTEAD, the politicians repealed the excess-profits taxes completely in 1946. In consequence, the disastrous strikes of last year were encouraged by the vast profits of the corporations, the country was brought to the verge of economic disaster and the great companies are today under heavy fire for their abnormal profits. Certainly, it is not exaggeration to say that if the Baruch advice had been followed in these four instances the nation would be vastly better off.

AND now Mr. Baruch has given some more advice—in South Carolina where he was born and where on Wednesday his portrait was unveiled in the Capitol. After reviewing the world situation, which, bad though it is, he refused to regard as hopeless, Mr. Baruch thinks we and the world can be saved by one thing—work. The salvation of the world, he insists, is possible only through the power of the United States. Our power can only be sustained through production, which means work. If we adopted a 5½-day 44-hour week, with no strikes or layoffs to January 1, 1949, the results would be "electrifying". "Let us not be deceived," he said. "We are today in the midst of a cold war. Our enemies are to be found abroad as well as at home. Our unrest is the heart of their success. We can depend only on ourselves. One by one our allies are—or think they are—exhausted. That means they stop work. But usually we find that exhaustion is the result of stopping work and not the other way around."

"THAT can happen here. Don't let us be sucked into the maelstrom. Today we are on the brink of an engulfing inflation. There is only one way out. That is by work." Mr. Baruch never gave sounder nor more timely advice. It would be a thrilling thing if there were the kind of statesmanship in Congress and in the White House, in industry and in labor, among Democratic and Republican leaders, to act upon it.

In View Of The News

By J. C. Ostreicher, INS Foreign Director

Another monument to vanished German greatness was card-indexed in the files of memory with British demolition of Helgoland, warhead of Teutonic naval strength in two world conflicts.

Great Britain's action in demolishing the fortifications and submarine pens of the 140-acre islet in the North Sea was less of a military measure than it was a salutary message to the German people that their days of armored glory, spiked helmets and Hessian boost have come to an end.

Sacred To Germans

There was something peculiarly sacred to the modern Germans about this island.

Correctly spelled in German, the name is Heligoland. And that means "holy land."

Although in Danish, Dutch and British hands at various stages throughout history, the island was closely interwoven with the Teutonic myths. In its caves and on its rugged promontories the strange warrior creatures whom Richard Wagner re-created in music and Adolf Hitler reincarnated in near reality were supposed to have carried out their mystic rites amidst the turbulence of the North Sea.

From the viewpoint of morale, the British Navy could not have chosen a better target except perhaps the Tannenberg Memorial to the late President Paul Von Hindenburg, which is now in Soviet territory and may or may not still be standing.

There was nothing peculiar left in Berlin that was worth destroying as an object lesson to the Germans.

Plans Progress For First Camp Meeting In Croton Section

Free Methodists of the New Castle district, of which Rev. Paul R. Splitstone is district elder, is making extensive plans to hold their first camp meeting in New Castle during the early part of August, it was announced today by Rev. Splitstone.

Disbanding their camp meeting grounds at Sharpsville, the church has purchased the former golf club site in the Croton avenue area on Scott and Vine streets and in the near future expect to erect several buildings for the accommodation of the hundreds that will be in attendance at the camp meeting.

The first meeting of the camp will be held in a tent, due to the inability to erect a tabernacle in time for the camp season this year. The church has secured a permit to erect a concrete block tabernacle 75x100 feet and may start its erection some time in the fall.

Buildings that will be erected prior to the opening of camp this summer include two rest rooms, 12x25, a dining hall and kitchen building, 50x80, and 24 frame cottages 16x18.

Expenditures on the construction will total $25,000.

Mrs. E. L. Young, of East Washington street, received members of the Frances Williard branch of W.C.T.U. Friday evening. Miss Laura Bell, president called the meeting to order with prayer.

Mrs. Alice McKillop conducted devotional and spoke of the growth of "Temperance Sentiment" in churches of foreign lands, as well as in our own country. An article from Union Signal was read stating that The United Churches of Canada has called upon membership to refrain from serving cocktails. The theme of Mrs McKillop's talk was taken from the Scriptural verse "Let us not be weary in well doing for in due time we shall reap if we faint not." Prayer closed worship period.

A Union Signal quiz was held. Questions were read by Mrs. James Pherson and answers by Mrs. J. E. Sommers.

Miss Iretta Dart was the speaker of the evening. Subject—Temperance in Mission Lands." During her talk Miss Dart told of Mrs. Hoyman who has headquarters in Assiut, Egypt, as a missionary and how she had stopped at National W. C. T. U. headquarters in Evanston, Illinois long enough to explain the details of her work for the benefit of local unions, who are considering the topic "The Foreign Missionaries Relations to W. C. T. Erie Man Aids Sufferers From Foot Troubles

Roy F. McClenathan developed a process in 1934 for making casts to be used in regular shoes enabling people suffering from foot troubles to walk straight and normal.

Word of this work has spread over the nation and is bringing sufferers to his modern, fully-enuipped establishment designed for the care of the feet by correctly-fitted shoes and casts.

These casts are a proven benefit to people with weak, flat feet, club feet, broken feet, crooked feet, spur heels, callouses, varicose veins, nervous breakdown, polio, strokes, diabetes, foot weakness from birth, foot numbness and one short foot.

There is no charge for examination. Mail address: R. D. 4, North East, Pa., located on Route 20 at Moorheadville. Erie phone 85-442.

Three Laborers Hurt In Blast At Harrisburg

Saturday Night Explosion At Steel Mill Rocks Capital And Suburban Towns

HARRISBURG, April 21.—(INS)—Three laborers were recovering today from injuries sustained Saturday midnight when an expolsion in the Central Iron and Steel company's mill rocked Harrisburg and suburban communities across the broad Susquehanna river.

President Basil Graham explained that water used in connection with stripping ingots from molds had come in contact with molten slag during the operation.

A mold, he said, which accidentally rolled into a side pocket of slag, had broken the crust and allowed the water to rush into the molten core. Explosions invariably follow such incidents, he added. Damages had not been finally evaluated but they were not expected to be high.

"We were very fortunate it was not more serious," Graham said.

Police and radio stations were besieged with telephone calls from persons remembering the tragedy in Texas City, Tex., which followed explosions of an ocean-going freighter and the Monsanto Chemical Co.

There were reports of shattered glass in the vicinity of the mill which is located along the river less than a mile from the center of Harrisburg.

Treated at the Harrisburg hospital early yesterday were Paul Miscevic, 54, of Steelton, Charles Pugh, 31, of Edgemont, and William Campbell, 31, of Harrisburg. Miscevic suffered second and third degree burns of the head, shoulders and hands; Pugh sustained minor lacerations of the head and hands while Campbell's eyes were treated.

Today it is the speed of travel, both on land and in the air, which adds danger to the spread of disease.

THE WORLD AND THE MUD PUDDLES

when the then President Roosevelt and Secretary of State Hull told the Japanese Special Messengers that the Japanese had to get out of China—leave Shanghai; leave all the rest of their occupied part of China—and made that the ultimatum of the whole discussion After that final word, the representatives of the Mikado left and in less than two weeks thereafter the attack on Pearl Harbor occurred. Now, what more information did the Senators want? Volumes of records did not throw any more light on the subject than that.

And now they want to know what secret agreements Mr. Roosevelt made with Stalin. Well, a citizen will have to be very dense and very ignorant concerning agreements made with Mr. Stalin without coming to the conclusion that it was simply impossible to make any agreement that Mr. Stalin would keep. Mr Stalin was going to give Poland a free election and the establishment of a Polish government based upon the will of the people. Well, when Poland held its first election last January, they held it under the direction of the Soviet government. The exact facts concerning the events preceeding that election are not known, but enough is known to convince the people of the United States that upwards of seventy-five thousand Poles were either killed or imprisoned during the last ninety days preceeding the election; that tens of thousands of voters' names were stricken from the voting lists because of their known or suspected affiliation with the Polish Peasant (anti-Communist) Party. In fact, there was no free expression given by the Poles at that election held on January 19th last.

Show Attitude

Traditionally, the Poles are freedom-loving indiviualists and under their own type of government had built up great industries and beautiful modern cities. How the Poles feel toward the present type of government in Poland is borne out by the fact that none of the Poles making up the Polish Army fighting with the Allies—of which Russia was one—would return to Poland; they migrated enmasse to England.

Now what more can a Senate Investigating Committee discover from the secret files of F. D. R. and what they discover from the alleged secret files held by Mr. Morgenthau? The financial set-up of the New Deal was dictated by Mr. Roosevelt from the time he repudiated the gold bonds of the United States to the day of his death. All the inflation of currency was at the direction of F. D. R. Mr. Morgenthau was just the little puppet. Nothing that he can write or say will change anything and his files would disclose nohing but the fact that F. D. R. was a Dictator.

Ragweed, very plentiful and a great nuisance in the United States, is very rare in the Dominion Republic and is greatly treasured there for its medicinal properties.

Bolivian Tin Tycoon Expires; Son Gets Wealth

BUENOS AIRES, April 21.—(INS)—Antenor Patino, husband of the Princes de Bourbon, fell heir today to the fabulous Bolivian tin empire of his father, Simon I. Patino, the humble Spanish-Indian peasant who became one of the world's wealthiest men.

The elder Patino, who rose from a Bolivian Andes wood carrier to control of one-fifth of the world's tin resources, died yesterday in his palatial Buenos Aires hotel suite after a long illness.

He was believed to be somewhere between 81 and 87 years old. Estimates of his fortune ran from 300 million to a billion dollars.

U. S. Department of Agriculture chemists have developed a non-swelling wood which promises to eliminate the nuisance of stuck drawers and doors.

WASHINGTON CALLING

sen's continuing growth. It is a part of his education for responsibility.

While he was still in naval uniform, he was named to the American delegation to the San Francisco conference that created the United Nations. There he won the respect and admiration of all who watched the struggles of the American delegation.

Our team at San Francisco did not show up too well. Too often it was the head of the Russian delegation, Vyacheslav Molotov, who seemed to speak for the forces of progress. Stassen did much to raise the level of the American performance without at any time resorting to spectacular or show-off tactics.

In the two years that have intervened, Stassen steadily and persistently has gone about it to equip himself for leadership. Yet among the smart boys who smoke big cigars in smoke-filled rooms, it is customary to dismiss his chances for the Republican nomination for the presidency with a condescending nod, half humorous, half pitying.

Insiders Against

The insiders in the party, as the smart boys put it, don't want him. This blandly ignores the fact that a considerable segment of the American public apparently would like to have an opportunity to vote for Stassen. In the public-opinion polls, Stassen customarily rates above all the other Republican candidates with the exception of New York's Governor Dewey.

This raises once again the question of how much choice we actually have in the selection of the men for whom we vote for president. Roscoe Drummond, in the Magazine '47 and again on the town meeting of the air, advocated direct and open primaries in all the states at which voters would have a choice to pass on not just two men but a fairly wide range of choice.

Personal Machines

Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio takes a strong objection to this proposal. He says that the result would be personal machines which would break up any party into fractions and thereby destroy the party system.

No one, says Taft, could enter the campaign who did not have unlimited cash support and the backing of very wealthy contributors. Furthermore, Taft says, the candidate in an open primary would have to have unlimited time at his disposal "because the success of a primary campaign depends largely upon personal campaigning. The field of candidates would be cut down to two or three, so that the people's voice would be almost as limited as Mr. Drummond says it is".

Stassen is reported to have some men of wealth behind him. But in his campaign for the presidency, he is in part at least paying his own way by lecturing and writing. He will lecture and write about his European tour, and we shall all be in his debt for his campaign of education and understanding.

lineage is only a step removed from "non-Aryanism."

Fundamentally, Helgoland was chief bastion of the German high seas fleet in both European wars of modern times.

Admiral Von Tirpitz sent the fleet from there in the first conflict to challenge the Union Jack at Dogger Bank and Jutland and wound up by finding his basins there and at Kiel bare of ships, all of them finally anchored at Scapa Flow for eventual scuttling.

Grand Admiral Erich Raeder, now pining his life away in Berlin's Spandau prison as the result of his sentence handed down at Nuernberg, used Helgoland as the chief base for his "wolf-pack" submarine flotillas whose commanders went out for operations with this single order:

"Kill, kill, kill!"

By virtue of nature and geographical location, Helgoland is one of the most ideal fishing communities of Europe. That was its original destiny, and to that it has been returned.

THE PARENT PROBLEM

you are about grown up and should be the pilot of your own life. You spend too much time pitying yourself. You take sneaking satisfaction from being self-conscious, nervous and over-sensitive.

Take your feelings in off your sleeve. Harden your own skin. Don't kid yourself that others do not discern your ease of being hurt. Nobody likes a person very easily hurt within any more than they like a child always crying at the slightest bump. Nobody hates you That's your imagination.

Learn to make yourself gracious and attractive to others and they will warm up to you. Get interested in what the other girls do. Learn to enjoy their successes. Then you can gradually forget yourself. I am enclosing my bulletin, "The Lonely, Timid Youth" which anybody else may have in a stamped envelope by writing me at 235 East 45th street, New York, N. Y.

Speculation On Japanese Peace Treaty Drafting

WASHINGTON, April 21—(INS)—Favorable reports on the progress of the Japanese people in adopting themselves to occupational reforms today aroused fresh diplomatic speculation on when the work of drafting a peace treaty can be taken up by the "Big Five" powers.

The favorable report was that made by General Douglas MacArthur as supreme commander of the Allied Powers for occupation progress in January. It was released simultaneously in Toyko and Washington last night.

The Russian attitude was regarded as the chief enigma facing those seeking to make preparatory draft of the treaty. The State Department is constantly working on a draft proposal for the United States but it was not yet clear whether there would be any international discussion of the matter other than in the Far Eastern Commission.

Eeal Test To Cbme

However, some hope is held that, since the 11-power commission is functioning effectively, though slowly, much of the delay encountered in drafting the German and Austrian treaties may be avoided. The real test will come when the "Big Five" sit down at a conference table.

While it had been hoped in some quarters that Secretary of State George C. Marshall would make an effort to further work on the Japanese treaty while in Moscow, this improbable now. He would naturally hesitate to do so since China is not represented on any sufficiently high level there. It was recalled in diplomatic circles that Marshall declined to discuss the Chinese situation without its being present when the conference first met.

Another factor which may affect Moscow's attitude toward discussing a treaty is its present dissatisfaction with the Nationalist government. It is doubted this has changed despite broadening of the Nanking regime, since the Communists have not yet seen fit to join.

Lawrence County Farm, Home News

By Extension Representative, Lewis C. Dayton, Agriculturist. Miss Emmeline Mehlman, Home Economics.

CARE WITH HORSES AVOIDS ACCIDENTS

Safe handling methods will help to avoid many of the farm mishaps which occur each year from careless handling of horses.

Make thorough checks on harness, neck yokes, single trees, double trees, eveners, tongues and other accessories and repair flaws before they are used. Broken equipment frequently has been reported as contributing to accidents involving horses.

Irritation caused by flies, especially nose-flies, makes horses nervous and skittish. Nose baskets and fly nets offer protection against these pests in field work. Clean and darkened stalls reduce irritation in the barn. DDT has proved very effective in barn fly control.

Additional suggestions for the safe handling of horses: Keep harness properly adjusted as well as free of defects; clean and oil harness periodically; keep your head in the clear when bridling or haltering; speak gently in approaching horses; stand with feet well back when harnessing; never permit hitched horses to stand untied.

Hold or keep lines within easy reach when driving; don't wrap lines around body or wrists; practice regularity and routine in hitching and harnessing; don't approach horses directly from the rear; don't handle or trim feet in close quarters; keep children away from horses.

CHILD CYCLIST KILLED BY AUTO

PITTSBURGH, April 21.—(INS)—Police reported today that two-year-old Jackie Rosemeyer was fatally injured yesterday when he rode his tricycle into the path of an automobile driven by a retired Pittsburgh fire captain.

Police said Mark Meyer, 50, had backed his automobile from a garage and had returned to close the garage doors when the boy rode in front of the car. Meyer told police he re-entered the automobile and, not seeing the boy, started to drive off. He said he heard a shout and stopped immediately, finding the child under the front of the car.

PITTSBURGH, April 21.—(INS)—The coroner's office reported today that Mrs. Audrey Martin, 40, of nearby Baldwin township, swallowed poison and died in her home. No reason was given for the suicide.

'Air Taxis' Begin Pittsburgh Service

PITTSBURGH, April 21.—(INS)—A new type of "jitney" service went into operation today in Pittsburgh.

Guy M. Miller, head of the Miller Aviation Center at Allegheny County Airport, announced that three amphibious "Air Taxis" will begin operations from the Monongahela River near the new Union Bus Terminal in downtown Pittsburgh.

The amphibians each will carry three passengers—and they will travel "anywhere."

Their chief use, Miller said, was expected to be that of a shuttle-service between the downtown district to nearby airports.

Forty per cent more meat was produced in the United States in 1941-45 period than in the 1935-1939 prewar period.

REMIND VETERANS OF DEADLINE FOR LEAVE PAY CLAIMS

HARRISBURG, April 21—(INS)—The Veterans of Foreign Wars today reminded Pennsylvania's ex-servicemen that claims for unused leave must not be postmarked later than September 1, 1947.

James F. Colley, state VFW director of claims services, said investigation had revealed that little more than half of the veterans entitled to pay for unused furloughs during the war had applied for government reimbursement.

Anderson Asks For Long-Range Farm 'Abundance'

WASHINGTON, April 21.—(INS)—Secretary of Agriculture Anderson asked Congress today to establish a long-range farm program of "planned abundance."

Testifying before the House Agriculture Committee, Anderson outlined the nation's need for a "policy of organized, sustained and realistic abundance."

To insure the future policy, he listed a seven-point program which he said would be launched by the Federal government. The program:

1. Keep agriculture geared to developments in other segments of the economy. 2. Help maintain stability of prices at levels fair to both producers and consumers. 3. Conserve and improve agricultural resources through an over-all land program.

4. Insure the welfare and rights of farm people. 3. Gather and apply scientific knowledge of farmers. 6. Establish a floor under consumption of farm products and avoid waste of production. 7. Maintain ever-normal grainary storage loans and marketing agreements which boster orderly marketing.

Anderson advised the committee: "What our studies and experience boil down to is one simple fact: By supplying only the reasonable needs of our own people and reasonably expected exports and industrial markets, we can not only market as much agriculture production as we have now but can actually expand.

The agriculture committee began spadework today on the task of overhauling the nation's long-range farm policy for the first time in 10 years.

There are 12,000,000 acres of forest land in Arizona.

Public Urged To Give More In Cancer Campaign

Average Donation 7½ Cents Per Person In Nation Last Year, Report Shows

Only 7½ cents per person was contributed last year to fight cancer, the nation's No. 2 killer.

Harold Burns of New Wilmington, and John R. Preston, of New Castle, county co-chairmen for the annual fund drive of the American Cancer Society, said today this amazing revelation was made at a recent regional meeting by the Pennsylvania division.

One of the businessmen at the meeting, when told that only $10,000,000 was raised nationally last year, computed the individual percentage and then commented:

"We Americans should be ashamed of having given such a small amount. "We certainly must do better this year. Cancer is an expensive disease. It absorbs the life savings of many families and leaves them penniless. If cancer is to be licked, it must be done in a big way."

Challenge To All

"This is a challenge to everyone," said Mr. Burns, "Even on this small amount contributed last year, we feel our unit did outstanding work in helping to conquer the disease and save lives. We certainly must double our efforts if this per capita percentage is to be increased."

"This is everybody's fight because one out of every eight persons will die of cancer unless something is done about it. The small per capita percentage is indicative that only a small portion of our population accepted its responsibility."

Drive Begins Wednesday

On Wednesday, April 23, the local drive will get underway to solicit funds in a house-to-house canvass for the American Cancer Society. A quota of $13,500 has been set for Lawrence county and the public is urged to give generously so that the goal may be exceeded.

Orchestra Closes Concert Season

San Francisco Symphony To Close Metropolitan Guild Season Tuesday

New Castle sees the close of the season of the Metropolitan Concert Guild Tuesday night in the Cathedral when Pierre Monteaux presents his San Francisco Symphony orchestra in concert. This will be the chief attraction of a star filled season and should be one of genuine musical enjoyment.

The orchestra will arrive upon its special train early Tuesday morning, and will probably have a short rehearsal in the afternoon. Listed upon the program are Festival Overture by Isadore Freed, Symphony No. 7 in A. major, Opus 92 by Beethoven, prelude to "Lohrengin" by Wagner and Concerto for Piano and Orchestra in E flat major by Liszt. The latter number is a tremendous work, brilliant and spectacular and calls out all the skill and artistry of an orchestra.

Featuring the concerto will be the appearance of Adrian Fisher, New Castle artiste, at the piano. Miss Fisher is familiar with the concerto, having appeared with other orchestras in its presentation. It will give her unusual opportunity to display her artistry and for New Castle people this number carries with it not alone musical anticipation but pride in the ability of a local musician.

President L. J. Lewis has made preparations for the arrival of the orchestra and also has detailed a number of the directors of the Metropolitan to various duties in connection with the concert.

GREEK BOYS FIND PEACE AT LAST: On the shores of the troubled Aegean, Greek boys find peace and quiet at their Y.M.C.A. camp. To give such young people a decent start in life, the Y.M.C.A. is seeking $8,650,000 to provide trained leaders and temporary quarters to replace the 105 'Y' buildings lost in the war.

Steel protects its workers

Steel mills have been leaders in the safety movement for 40 years

THE FAMOUS slogan "Safety First" was born in a steel company nearly 40 years ago. That's when Steel started the first organized safety campaign in the world.

But safety is more than a slogan in the steel industry—nine out of ten accidents that used to happen in steel mills don't happen any more.

Working as a team, management and employees together have made steel jobs so safe that after reviewing the recent figures, The National Safety Council says: "Workers in steel plants run less risk of accidents per hour on the job than they do per hour in their automobiles."

Teachers Decide Against Strike

UNIONTOWN, Pa., April 21.—Even though they believe they are being made "the goats" in the refusal of the school board to grant them a bonus for seven months this term, the teachers of Brownsville school have declared against a strike of any kind and will continue their duties with the hope of receiving further compensation next year.

Officers of the Brownsville Teachers association have placed the education and welfare of children above salaries.

"We are not going to strike," said a statement. "The education of the children is far more important than an increase in salary."

There are more than 160 million books in public and college libraries in the United States.

More than five weeks were required for the 204 roll calls of the U. S. House of Representatives, made during the last session of the 74th Congress. Only eight members of the House were present at every roll call.

The normal rate of 10 brides for every 1,000 persons has risen in the United States to 14.

Campbell, of Mahoning township; Mrs. Seth Neely, of Plain Grove; and Mrs. Dale McCurley, of North Beaver township, members of the Executive Committee of the Lawrence County Agricultural Extension Association.

A varied program has been mapped out, which will include exhibits, recreational activities, etc.

The principal speaker will be Miss Sarah Warren, assistant nutrition specialist of Penn State College, who will speak on "Food facts, fads, and fallacies".

Judge W. Walter Braham will also address the women, speaking on "Legal matters related to the home".

Miss Mehlman is looking forward to meeting the leaders of the various rural communities at this meeting, and getting better acquainted with them.

Newspaper Guild Considering Bill To Limit Strikes

WASHINGTON, April 21—(INS)—Milton Murray, president of the American Newspaper Guild, said Saturday that the ANG executive board is considering a measure which would extremely limit the right of local guild units to call strikes.

Murray told the American Society of Newspaper Editors that constitutional changes limiting the right to strike will be presented at the Guild convention in Sioux City on June 23. The executive board is framing the provision in Chicago now.

Murray said the measure under consideration would permit the board or top Guild officers to impose a veto on a locally-called strike.

It would also give the national officials supervision over strike funds.

He said the proposals were being framed after a "bitter battle" over their content among board members.

Murray said that the measure resulted from the Guild's experience with locally-called strikes in Philadelphia and Los Angeles. The Philadelphia strike resulted in the shutdown of the Philadelphia Record and its sale to the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.

Junior-Senior Prom Planned

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., April 21.—Final arrangements for the New Wilmington high school junior-senior prom were completed at the junior class meeting Friday. The semi-formal dinner dance will be held at Schusters on Thursday evening, May 8, at 6:30, according to Logan Dicks, junior class president.

After some discussion on the subject of staging a junior class play, the students voted 32 to 8 against it.

A committee composed of Donna Womer, Louise Garrett, Alice Frew, Katherine Russell, James Graham and Donald Rapson was appointed to complete arrangements for holding a school dance during the latter part of May.

Motorcycle Cop Ponders Spending $25,000 Left Him

PASSAIC, N. J., April 21.—(INS)—Harry Zabotinsky, an amiable 37-year-old Passaic motorcycle cop, was planning today how to spend an unexpected $25,000, bequeathed to him by a prosperous Chicago merchant, for whom he did a kind deed two years ago.

Zabotinsky lent a helping hand to William Aronson whose car broke down while he was en route to visit friends in Rutherford, N. J.

After the incident, he maintained friendly relations with Aronson, some postcard correspondence, a box of cigars every Christmas and dinners in the best Passaic roadhouses whenever Aronson was in the East.

Last week, Harry received a wire from Aronson's attorney, J. B. Manning, in Chicago, saying the merchant had died and left the policeman $25,000, "in memory of a kindness."

He thought someone was kidding, until he got confirmation by phone last night.

Harry will have to wait a week or two before technicalities permit transfer of the $25,000.

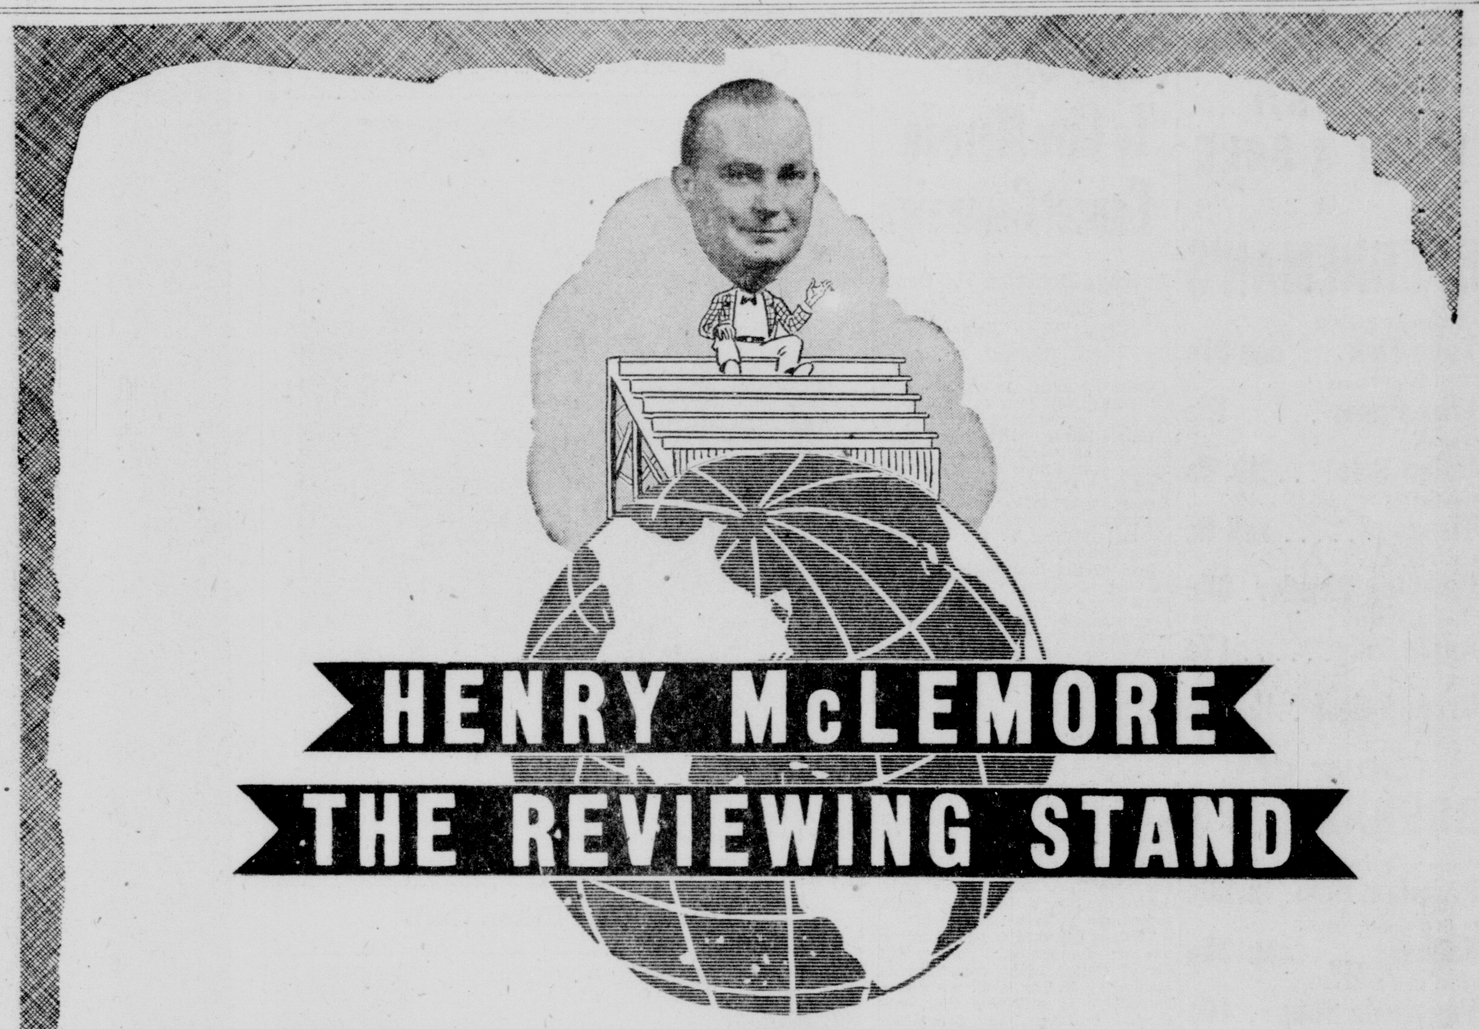
Oil Company To Aid Victims Of Texas Disaster

PITTSBURGH, April 21.—(INS)—The Republic Oil Company, announced today in Pittsburgh it will pay $1,000 to the widow or family of any member of the firm who lost his life in the Texas City disaster.

The company's board of directors, in voting the payment, said it would be separate from any future settlement the firm might make.

The money, the board said, is intended for recognized, immediate needs of victims' survivors.

The company also announced that the Universal Products Corp., of Chicago, is sending Republic 20 engineers to aid in cleaning up the oil firm's properties damaged in the Texas City blasts.



THE REVIEWING STAND — By HENRY McLEMORE — Barefoot Girl With Cheek

NEW YORK, APRIL 10.—I'm for it. The man has something. I mean the Englishman who recently suggested to the women of his country that they solve the shoe shortage by going barefoot this summer.

If the plan is adopted, I am going to take off immediately for England without benefit of boat. I'll just buy myself a nice warm bathing suit, slip into the North River without the aid of tugs, bon voyage parties, or steamer chairs, and start my steady dog paddle toward Plymouth or Liverpool, or London even.

It would be a strenuous trip across the Atlantic, but it would be worth it. Can you imagine any sight more awe-inspiring than that of Dowager Queen Mary wearing one of her celebrated eight-layer hats and one of those hand-me-down dresses she inherited from Queen Victoria, paddling around Buckingham Palace in her bare feet? It would make the Taj Mahal by moonlight look like a filling station by flashlight.

She wouldn't have that sedate walk, either. The feel of that cold marble on her regal tootsies would spry her up considerably and might even go so far as to give her sufficient courage to talk with her granddaughter, Princess Elizabeth, who, according to all reports, could use a little of the graciousness and wisdom her grandmother has shown throughout the years.

However, the sight of thousands upon thousands of barefooted women might drive a man to live under water with his favorite fountain pen.

Few things are more soft and cuddly and sweet than a baby girl's feet, but, oh mercy, when those little feet grow and grow dire and dreadful things happen to them.

Little toes that once resembled dewdrops take on the appearance of exhausted peanuts and the skin that once was as smooth as a pheasant's neck acquires the texture of the deck of the battleship Missouri.

This unhappy change, so I have been told by members of the weaker sex, takes place because the average woman is proud of large feet and insists on wearing shoes many sizes too large for her. As a result, her feet slip and slide around in her shoes and become toughened. If the average woman wanted her feet to appear small and dainty, I am told, and encased them in shoes too small for her, this would not happen.

Going barefoot can be pure delight as every small-town youngster will testify. How well I remember pestering mamma each spring to hurry the day when she would decide that it was warm enough for me to shed shoes and stockings and start a summer of going barefoot.

I can still feel the cool springy touch of the dewy grass on my feet when I'd light out for school in the morning. And what a joy it was to scuffle along a dirt road spurting the powdery dust between your toes. And those stone bruises on the heel—those bruises you couldn't see but which made you hop along on your toes.

Before the English women start going barefoot, let me warn them of the dangers of stepping on rakes. I still have four scars on my right foot from stepping on one and a bump on the back of my head from the handle flying up and whacking me.

Yes, ladies, watch out.

Around Hollywood

By JOHN TODD
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, April 21.—(INS)—Dorothy Malone's Hollywood star is burning ever brighter these days, but this Texas beauty has her own definite ideas about a permanent career.

It isn't to become a famous movie luminary. She thinks a real happy future lies in returning to her native Dallas and marrying one of the home-town boys—or at least a Texan!

Dorothy explained:

"As long as I have started a screen career I want to do something really good, something worthwhile, before I quit and go back home.

"I don't know exactly what kind of thing it is I want to do here, but I'll know when it comes along.

Discovered By Scout

"I've never wanted a permanent career as an actress. Of course, a girl never knows. I may change my mind later, but I don't think so. I don't think real happiness can be found in Hollywood.

"I was in college when I was discovered by a talent scout. I was actually tested and signed in Dallas.

"When I first came here three years ago, with my mother I did it more as a gag than anything else. I never really intended to stay more than six months, but time passed and mother went home and I stayed.

"Right now I have the best role since I started".

By that Dorothy meant she had the feminine lead in "Two Boys From Texas" at Warners.

Your reporter wanted to know if there was any possibilty of her marrying an actor, because a girl in movies is thrown into contact with a lot of handsome and glamorous males.

Dorothy shook her head and said: "No, I'm sure I'll never marry an actor. It isn't that I don't like actors. I know some I like very much. But, somehow actors are different from other men".

Frank Sinatra is using all available time these days in the M-G-M wardrobe department getting ready for the start of "The Kissing Bandit". Susan Hayward is using her spare time knitting socks. Janis Paige is knitting, too—baby booties, but they're for a friend.

Ronald Reagan is having sinus trouble again. Vic Mature writes he's having a swell time on location in New York City and that he wishes your reporter was there. So do we!

Hedy Lamarr says her new son John Anthony Loder, looks just like her. No boy should be that good looking.

Two Doctors Die As Plane Crashes

MOUNDSVILLE, W. Va., April 21.—Civil aeronautics officials and police today investigated the death of two doctors, both of Wheeling, who were killed yesterday when their small plane crashed shortly after taking off from Glen Dale airport near Moundsville.

Police reported that Dr. John K. Schuler, optometrist, and Dr. H. N. Azar, a physician, were killed instantly when their private plane plummeted to the ground from a low altitude. Witnesses said the plane apparently developed engine trouble on take-off and was returning to the field when it crashed.

Doolittle Urges U.S. Keep A-Bomb Secret

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., April 21—(INS)—U. S. disclosure of the atom bomb secret would be stupid, Jimmy Doolittle declared Saturday.

The former lieutenant-general of the AAF was in Miami Beach to join his famed "Tokyo Raiders" in a reunion marking the fifth anniversary of their bombing of Tokyo.

Doolittle, who directed the initial bombing of Japan, declared that America must keep the secret of the atomic bomb if world peace is to be assured.

Factor For Peace

Doolittle told newsmen:

"The greatest single factor to insuring peace now is that we—a non-aggressor nation—have the atom bomb and have the aircraft capable of using such a potent weapon.

"As long as that condition holds, there will be no war. The stupidest thing we could do would be to destroy the bomb or to share it with another nation."

He listed two requirements for the eventual maintenance of world peace:

1. Establishment of a world organization based on law and a police force to enforce the law.

2. A strong military with a dominant air force backing up such an organization.

May Take Years

Doolittle pointed out, however, that his proposals may take years before they are cemented and suggested America insure temporary peace by clinging to the atomic bomb.

Forty veterans of the historic Doolittle raid on Tokyo who flew their B-25's off the aircraft carrier Hornet in April, 1942, were gathered for the reunion at a Miami Beach hotel.

They came from all parts of the world.

Lt. Jacob Eirman traveled all the way from Erland, Germany, to attend. Lt. Col. Everett W. Holstrom came from Ft. Richardson, Alaska. Lt. David Poe arrived from Panama and Lt. Douglas Rodney made the trip from Ladd Field, Alaska.

Doolittle arrived from New Jersey last night. The gathering was postponed a day until his arrival.

Young Mother Admits Killing Infant Daughter

Pretty 18-Year-Old Girl Leads Police To Place Where She Took Baby's Life

PITTSBURGH, April 21.—(INS)—A pretty, 18-year-old mother was held by Pittsburgh police today after she admitted she strangled her three-month-old daughter and shoved her body into a culvert near a railroad right away.

Police said Mrs. Dorothy Smith was arrested after her mother-in-law identified the baby's clothing at the morgue.

The young mother confessed the slaying yesterday, police said, and led authorities to the spot where the baby was slain. Police said Mrs. Smith carried her daughter, Margaret Jean, for two hours and walked two miles before stuffing cleansing tissues into her mouth to strangle her.

She told police that she first planned to throw the child into the river and had placed a heavy lump of coal in her blankets.

Mrs. Smith told police that her husband was not the father of the baby child. She and Daniel Smith, 18, were married last December 5. The baby was born January 8.

The baby's father died overseas last year, she said.

Her husband told police he was unaware of the slaying, explaining that his wife told him she had given the baby away.

The youthful mother's arrest followed after her mother-in-law, Mrs. Margaret Smith, told police she was suspicious about the absence of her daughter-in-law's baby.

Postpone Strike Of Bell Company Maintenance Men

Announce Strike Scheduled For Today Has Been Postponed Indefinitely

PHILADELPHIA, April 21—(INS)—A strike of Pennsylvania's 6000 telephone maintenance workers scheduled for today has been postponed indefinitely.

Instead, representatives of the Federation of Telephone Workers of Pennsylvania and the Bell Telephone Co. of Pennsylvania will resume contract negotiations in the U. S. conciliation services offices in Philadelphia.

William S. Leary, federation president, said the union's board of executives had recsinded the strike call because of oppoosition by the majority of the FTPW's 25 local presidents.

The walkout would have left only a handful of supervisors and executives to service and repair all telephone equipment in the commonwealth.

A company spokesman meanwhile said one-third of the FTWP's membership was crossing picket lines to work. Leary said his union members would "continue" to respect picket lines and to hold "continuous meetings".

In Camden, N. J., police were guarding the Philadelphia-Camden phone cables under the Delaware river following an alleged 'sabotage' attempt on a cable in the Hackensack river at East Rutherford, N. J.

Solicitation by Members of Service Clubs and Civic Organizations

The condemned ate a hearty meal

THIS may be your nextdoor neighbor's table—or yours. Sooner or later, cancer may come to your house or his.

Every day, cancer sits at somebody's table. For cancer strikes—on the average—one out of every two American homes . . . one out of eight Americans is condemned to die of cancer unless we do something about it.

How can you help fight this disease?

One way is to see your doctor the minute any member of your family develops one of cancer's danger signals*.

Another way—a way in which you not only help guard those you love but bring new hope to thousands—is to join the fight to conquer cancer.

The April drive of the American Cancer Society is now on. Help this vast army of workers drive cancer from our midst. Give so they can pay for more research. Give so they can buy more equipment to ease suffering, restore hope. Give so they can find a cure for cancer—a cure that some day may save a life in your own home.

And give generously, won't you? Let's stop fearing cancer—let's conquer cancer!

Nightclub Singer Admits Romance With Yacht Owner

Had Romance With Attorney John Lester Mee Before He Was Killed On Yacht

MILWAUKEE, April 21.—(INS)—Lorraine De Wood, a sultry nightclub singer, admitted in Milwaukee today that she had a romance with Chicago Attorney John Lester Mee before he was killed aboard his yacht off Havana.

But, she complained:

"Why do they have to drag me into it? It's all over, and she had been indicted. I have my whole life to live."

The "she" referred to by Miss De Wood was another show girl, Patricia Schmidt, who is held in Havana in the shooting of Mee aboard the yacht "Satira."

Miss De Wood, who ended an engagement in Milwaukee's Tic Toc club last night, revealed that Mee's boat originally was named "La Tirana," which is Spanish for "female tyrant."

Mee referred to Miss De Wood as "La Tirana" in a book of poems.

Yacht Renamed

The yacht was renamed "Satria," the show name of Miss Schmidt, after Mee missed seeing Lorraine in Havana where she appeared at a theater.

Mee described Lorraine in letters and a diary as an "exotic dream girl," and revealed that she had a greater hold on him than any other person.

Lorraine was emphatic in her statement that she had broken off with the attorney for good last September. She claimed she tried to make the break earlier when she learned that Mee was already married.

But, the 21-year-old singer added, she hadn't been able to somehow.

Miss De Wood said that Mee had proposed marriage before she learned that he was married to Mary Dixon Mee, a dancer in Chicago nightclubs under the name "Marilyn Drake."

Mee's wife wrote the singer and Miss De Wood replied with a promise that she would never see the ex-naval officer again.

Lorraine said she tried to keep the promise, but:

"I did see him again before he sailed for the Pacific, and later in New York."

WESTINGHOUSE MAY BOOST PRICES TO MEFT RISE IN PAY

PITTSBURGH, April 21.—(INS)—Wage boosts granted to 75,000 production workers last week, may force the Westinghouse Electric Company to increase prices on certain products, it was reported today in Pittsburgh.

Sources close to the company reported that the 15-cent hourly pay increase to production workers, and the possible increase in steel prices due to the new steel pact, may require Westinghouse to raise prices on goods which now retail a narrow margin of profit.

The possible price increase became known as company officials prepared to meet with representatives of the 15,000-member salaried workers union to discuss a reported company offer of a $5 weekly wage increase.

Deny Reports Of Arab States Offer

British Spokesman Repudiates Reports Of Palestine Offer By Four Arab States

LONDON, April 21.—(INS)—A foreign office spokesman repudiated today reports that four Arab states have decided to offer Britain military concessions in return for obtaining a "favorable" United Nations decision on Palestine.

The spokesman was questioned concerning published reports that the foreign ministers of Syria, Lebanon, Iraq and Transjordan met at Damascus Thursday and agreed to make the offer to Britain.

The spokesman flatly denied any such offer has been made and then added:

"His majesty's government has received no indication from any Arab state, singly or collectively, to that effect, or has even heard through the remotest channels, or any such proposition going to be made."

An authoritative government source said: "I can not see what object it would serve to make such an offer as the United Nations must make the decision, not Britain." He added:

"Therefore, the question of a 'bribe'—if that is the allegation—is ridiculous."

The Arab office in London also denied knowledge of the Arab offer.

Convict Man Of Manslaughter At Montrose

MONTROSE, Pa., April 21.—(INS)—Glen I. Bennett, 26-year-old 200-pound farmer, was found guilty of voluntary manslaughter Saturday in the fatal shooting of Rupert White, 48, a Kingston Construction company superintendent.

The jury returned the verdict shortly after 11 a. m., when the court reconvened.

Defense attorneys, pending a motion for a new trial, then went into conference in an attempt to obtain bail for the defendant who had been incarcerated since last November.

Bennett took the verdict calmly, although his brother, from whom he had obtained the shotgun, wept at the decision.

Earlier this week, the jurors had visited the scene of the slaying, and a tavern Bennett and White had gone to before the victim was shot to death in his automobile.

On the stand for nearly two hours yesterday, the defendant told the jury that White had been following him in an automobile, and he finally confronted him with a shotgun which discharged accidentally as he planned to hold White for police.

During the trial District Attorney Joseph Carrigg presented a signed statement which Bennett had given to State Troop A. W. Rogers the day of the shooting.

Chinese Reds Say They Will Release Two U. S. Officers

NANKING, April 21.—(INS)—A Communist radio report emanating from the province of North Shenshi said that two American officers, arrested in Manchuria March 1, will be freed in Nationalist territory April 24.

The men are Major Robert Rigg, of Chicago, and Capt. John W. Collins, of Gallion, Ala.

The radio requested the American consulate in Changchun to send representatives to a point about 69 miles northeast of Changchun to meet Rigg and Collins. They were told to carry proper credentials and also to carry white flags for signal purposes.

American officials in Nanking regarded the broadcast as the first reliable indication of the specific time of release.

Chinese Communists arrested them on the grounds that they had been spying on Communist military positions in Manchuria.

It was believed the release would be negotiated by Edmund Clubb, W. S. consul general at Harbin, at present stationed at Changchun, and assistant military attache Lt. Col. Edward T. Cowen.

Governor Favors Philadelphia As Convention Site

HARRISBURG, April 21.—(INS)—Philadelphia's bid for the 1948 Republican national convention had the support today of Gov. James H. Duff who predicted the nation would elect the GOP's presidential candidate next year.

In a telegram to GOP National Committeeman G. Mason Owlett, meeting with the party's national committee at Kansas City, Mo., the governor pointed out that Philadelphia historic background would provide an unexcelled backdrop for the convention. He said in part:

"As the birthplace of American liberty, the home of Independence Hall and the Liberty Bell, it would furnish the ideal setting for the Republican party to proclaim to the nation and the world the rebirth of freedom.

"Finally, Philadelphia is a Republican city in a Republican state and an ideal place to nominate the next Republican president of the United States."

Delayed Fighting Grand Camp Blaze Coast Guard Told

GALVESTON, Tex., April 21.—(INS)—There was no all-out effort to extinguish the fire aboard the French freighter Grandcamp, a Coast Guard Court of Inquiry was told Saturday.

The first of the chain of explosions that ravished nearby Texas City occurred aboard the freighter.

L. D. Boswell, foreman of a gang of longshoremen, testified that water was not poured into the blazing hold for fear of damaging the cargo.

Boswell also testified that he observed "uncontrolled smoking" on the deck of the freighter.

He was bossing a gang loading the Grandcamp's No. 4 hatch when the fire was discovered, Boswell said.

Does Stomach Gas and Bloat Make You Feel Miserable?

If so, here is how you may get blessed relief in freeing your stomach from this nervous distress. It works this way:

Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, touchy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—so with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red-blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better.

Avoid punishing yourself with overdoses of soda and other alkalizers to counteract gas and bloating when what you so dearly need is SSS Tonic to help you digest food for body strength and repair. Don't wait! Join the host of happy people SSS Tonic has helped. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle of SSS Tonic from your drug store today. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

Ten Auto Thefts Charged To Man

State Police Arrest Local Man Last Night On Auto Stealing Charges

State police arrested Bert Jenkins, homeless since he was released on parole from the Eastern penitentiary January 20, on a charge of stealing 10 automobiles, seven in the city and three outside the city. A formal charge will be made against him today. He was captured by state police spread out near the Hog Hollow-West Pittsburg road at six p. m. Sunday. Jenkins allegedly stole the cars, later abandoning them. They have since been recovered by police.

He was alleged to have stolen the auto owned by Angelo Papa from Chewton Saturday night. A friend of Papa saw the auto and noticed Jenkins asleep in the car at West Pittsburg at 11 a. m. Sunday.

Jenkins broke from the man's grasp when he "collared" him and fled into the woods.

State police were notified. They spread a dragnet for Jenkins, who came out of the woods and was arrested while at the intersection of the Hog Hollow-West Pittsburg road.

He is confined in the county jail.

The thefts extended over a period dating back to March 18, he reportedly confessed to state police.

According to reports, after using the cars Jenkins would abandon them. They have been recovered.

Miners And Auto Workers Remain To Settle Wages

PITTSBURGH, April 21.—(INS)—Only two large labor bodies—the AFL-United Mine Workers and the CIO-United Auto Workers—remained undecided on their 1947 contract settlements to bring peace on the nation's labor front.

The greatest stumbling block to industrial pace was removed yesterday when the USW signed a two-year contract with U. S. Steel granting production workers a 15-cent-an-hour hike. Last week US signed their contract with Westinghouse, granting a similar increase.

Industrialists said they were at a loss on John L. Lewis' 1947 terms . . . and Walter Reuther, president of the Automobile Workers, is demanding a 23-cent-on-hour raise for his workers.

However, union leaders in Pittsburgh believed Reuther will settle his conract for a "figure close to the steelworkers."

YOUNGSTOWN, O., April 21.—Local 102, United Rubber Workers, CIO, voted to authorize the unions executive committee to call a strike at the plant of the Republic Rubber Works here if and when a strike is deemed necessary.

The ballot was 448 to 58. In the meantime, Charles J. Carney of Youngstown, field representative of the United Rubber Workers, said that the union desired to continue negotiations with the company. He said that the union and the company were 'close" on the main issue of wage increases, but were still seeking adjustment of "fringe issues".

Pirates Divide Double-Header With Cincinnati Reds Sunday

Reds Slug Ball For 13 To 5 Win, Bucs Win Second

Ewell Blackwell Victor In Second Game Of Year, Rip Sewell Wins Abbreviated Contest

RED SOX LOSE FIRST OF YEAR

By LES CONKLIN
(International News Service Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, April 21—The National League movie theatre today presents a double-feature mystery program entitled "What has happened to the St. Louis Cardinals and the Cincinnati Reds?"

Baseball people simply cannot fathom the spectacle of the world's champion Cards wallowing in last place, at the bottom of the heap. Nor can the sharps understand the unexpected hitting power of the Reds.

Reds Show Power

Johnny Neun, Cincinnati's new manager, must be feeding his erstwhile banjo hitters on spinach, double-edged vitamins, TNT salad, dynamite chips and atom bomb ingredients. Even Eddie Miller, never a slugger, walloped his third and fourth homers of the season as the Reds won yesterday's opener, 13 to 5, behind Ewell Blackwell before dropping the nightcap, 7 to 3, in five and one-half innings.

Miller now has the laugh on Cincinnati officials who have been trying to trade him all winter.

Nicholson Hits Well

Laughing along with Eddie is Swish Nicholson, of the Cubs, who also has been on the trading bloc. All Bad Bill did yesterday was to crack two homers, like Miller, as the Cubs trounced the Cards 7 to 4 behind Hank Borowy's five-hit pitching. One of Swish's smacks came with the bases loaded. The stylish Howie Pollet was the losing hurler.

Right behind the pace-setting Pirates are the amazing Phillies, who bowled over Mel Ott's green and faltering New York Giants, 10 to 1. Snow, of all things, kept the Dodgers and Braves idle in Boston.

Red Sox Lose

In the American League, the champion Boston Red Sox tasted defeat for the first time this season when Walt Masterson of Washington held them to three hits and beat them 3 to 1.

What one man can mean to a ball club was demonstrated when the injured Joe DiMaggio hit a majestic homer to spark the New York Yankees to a 6-to-2 win over the Athletics in the first game of a twin bill. The hardened pros of the New York club acted like a bunch of Joe Colleges in congratulating Joe, and then steamed themselves up into taking the nightcap from the A's, 3 to 2, on Tommy Henrich's double in the tenth.

Boston's defeat put the idle Chicago White Sox in first place. Cleveland and Detroit also were idle, along with the White Sox and Browns.

Zale-Graziano Title Bout Set For Chicago Ring

Illinois Athletic Commission Approves Showing Of Barred Rocky Graziano

SEEK BALL PARK FOR PRESENTATION

CHICAGO, April 21 — (INS) — Preparations were being made today for the Tony Zale-Rocky Graziano 15-round world middleweight title rematch, scheduled for late June or early July in one of Chicago's major league ballparks.

The much-discussed fight, which is expected by its promoters to draw at least $500,000 at the gate, was sanctioned by the Illinois Athletic Commission at a special meeting Friday.

A formal written application for approval of the match and permission to stage it was filed jointly by Arthur M. Wirtz, owner of the Chicago Stadium, and Irving Schoenwald, who will be the active promoter.

Will Post Bond

Following the commission's decision, Sam Pian, Zale's manager, and Irving Cohen, Graziano's manager, agreed to post a $10,000 bond within 30 days to guarantee the appearance of their fighters.

The 15-round bout will be Chicago's first championship fight since the Joe Louis-Jim Braddock heavyweight battle at Comiskey Park June 22, 1937.

Plans for a New York rematch between Zale and Graziano were scrapped following Graziano's "life" suspension for failure to report a proffered bribe.

Selecting Site

The National Boxing Association, with which the Illinois Commission is affiliated, did not go along on the suspension.

Wirtz, who will be taking his first fling at fight promoting, said the bout will be held between June 25 and July 15 in either Comiskey Park or Wrigley Field. The date, site and scale of prices will be announced in a few days.

Cohen is expected to return to Chicago with Graziano in a week or 10 days to sign the formal contract.

May Need Tuneup

Schoenwald said the fighters will split 60 per cent of the receipts, the same percentage they shared when Zale knocked out Rocky in the sixth round of their first title battle fought at Yankee Stadium last Sept. 27.

Rocky has indicated that he may need at least one tune-up before facing the champion again. He has not fought since his first clash with Zale.

Chicago fans last saw Zale in action when he successfully defended his N.B.A. version of the middleweight crown against Al Hostak in 1941.

FAIR OR FOUL

BY LAWTON CARVER

By LAWTON CARVER
(International News Service Sports Editor)

NEW YORK, April 21 — The Brooklyn Dodgers have installed a managerial routine which will be unbelievably strange to the fans who came to love Leo Durocher's loud and truculent way of doing things.

What it all amounts to is this: Bert Shotton, a mild-mannered man assumes Durocher's title, but he actually will serve as a sort of kindly shepherd to the ball players and reply on his coaches and President Branch Rickey to run the team.

Good Listener

Shotton will sit on the bench, but not in uniform. He will survey the scene sedately from the shade of the dugout and let his coaches, Clyde Sukeforth, Ray Blades and Jake Pitler, kick dust on the umpires.

They also will advise him on strategy, what to do about the tiring pitcher, which lineup to start and other such matters, and Rickey will issue an occasional communique from his offices giving his views on the situation.

Shotton will listen to everybody —and possibly windup not hearing anything except those loud, vulgar squawks peculiar to the irate Brooklyn fans.

Fine Running Team

There will be more men running the club than Happy Chandler can shake a stick at—five of them to be exact, counting Shotton, Rickey and the three coaches. All of which looks like a great tribute to Durocher. He used to do it all himself.

However, Shotton gets himself off on the right foot in one respect—by admitting that he has taken over a tough spot and implying that he doesn't plan to lose any sleep over it..

Shotton told reporters who accosted him upon news of his signing.

"I don't know anything about the Brooklyn team or any of the others. It is all new to me—I didn't even make up today's lineup, and my coaches will run things."

For how long? One swing around the circuit?

"Maybe longer than that," Shotton answered

Manager in Name

The elderly, quiet man said all he knows is that he received a telegram making him manager and he showed up. He has been with a dozen clubs in one capacity or another through the years, and during this spring was connected with the Dodgers Baseball school at Pensacola, Fla.

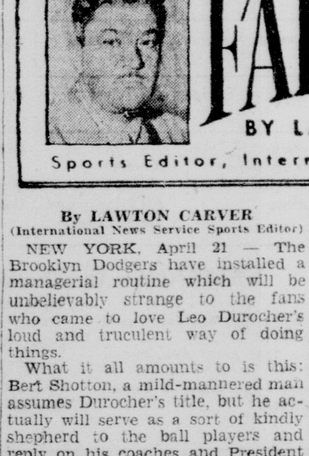
He managed the Philadelphia Phillies for a half dozen years during one stretch of his varied baseball career, but his most unique connection with the game was as Branch Rickey's Sunday manager.

This was back in the days when Rickey was a field leader, instead of one of baseball's leading executives. Then, as now, Rickey wouldn't be caught inside of a baseball park on the Sabbath. So once a week, Shotton was manager of the St. Louis Browns.

The old outfielder now finds himself with an arrangement not entirely unlike that one that he had with Rickey before.

Where he was a manager one-day a week in those days, he now is one-fifth manager every day.

He's Berra Good



GO AHEAD and smile, Yogi, you really have something to grin about this spring. Yogi is Yogi Berra, the St. Louis kid who's going to win a starting berth with the New York Yankees this year. Yogi has been blasting the ball in practice games. He comes up from Newark where he hit .314 last season. (International)

Fifty-Two Schools Compete In Ohio Meet, New Castle Only Pennsylvania Entry

MEET MT. LEBANON AWAY ON TUESDAY

New Castle High's 1947 track team, potential WPIAL champions again this year, ran into a tough field of 52 schools at Mansfield, O., Saturday and finished in tenth place with nine points, a very creditable showing for the kind of competition they encountered.

The Coach William Klee thinclads brought back a handsome trophy cup for finishing tenth in the well staged meet. New Castle was the only Pennsylvania school entered.

New Castle took a fourth place in the medley relay and won two points, the following boys running: Sammy Keys 220, Phil Richards 440, Sid Lockley, Jr., 880 and George Capps the mile.

Second In Mile Relay

Sid Lockley, Jr., ran the open 880 race in nice fashion and finished third for three points. New Castle finished second in the mile relay and won four points, the following boys competing: Lou Gilmore, Gene Gribble, Phil Richards and Jim Gillespie.

The only event entered in which the locals failed to place was the 880-yard relay. In addition to the beautiful trophy the mile relay team brought home silver buckles with the Mansfield emblem on them, and young Sid Lockley received a bronze belt buckle for his efforts in the 880, and the medley team got fourth place ribbons.

New Castle runs into its stiffest test of the year Tuesday at Mt. Lebanon. The "Mounties" perennially with strong track teams will be out to defeat New Castle for the drubbing handed them in the WPIAL meet last year when New Castle dethroned the 1945 champions.

Phone Strike In Detroit Develops Some Violence

Pickets Attempt To Stop Workers From Entering Building Today

DETROIT, April 21.—(INS)—Violence broke out at the Michigan Bell Telephone company's main office in Detroit today when pickets attempted to stop workers from entering the building.

About 20 strikers were arrested and one person was injured when a police riot squad attempted to stop the outbreak.

A human corridor of police was formed to guard the main entrance on Cass avenue and traffic was blocked off from the troubled area.

A crew of mounted policemen was detailed to the scene and after 40 minutes of rioting order was partially restored.

A mass of 500 pickets appeared in front of the building as the situation grew extremely tense.

A company spokesman reported that one of the pickets arrested was James B. Hawkins, strike director.

Louis Van Cuil, 24, identified as a company lineman, was taken to receiving hospital for treatment of head injuries.

The striking Detroit telephone workers held a "morale" rally last night during which 2,500 persons heard key labor leaders pledge their support of the walkout.

The members also voted to stage a mass demonstration this morning.

Jesuit Priest Who Was Stabbed May Recover

New Orleans, April 21.—(INS)—A Jesuit priest who was stabbed four times while giving holy communion in a New Orleans church was reported in "fair" condition today.

Hospital officials said the condition of Rev. Father James W. Courtney, 52, was "better than 50-50".

Police were holding an ex-marine from Houston, Tex., on a charge of aggravated battery in the stabbing. He was identified as Don Louis Laurentz, 27.

Deteitives said Laurentz gave them no information about the attack, but just "looked into space with glassy eyes".

Father Courtney was wounded just before noon yesterday in the Immaculate Conception church of which he is assistant pastor.

Fayette County Vice Cleanup Is Given Momentum

UNIONTOWN, Pa., April 21.—(INS)—The Uniontown Ministerial Association's campaign to eliminate "hell hole" saloons and taverns in Fayette county was well under way today following a Sunday mass meeting in Uniontown.

At the special meeting, clergymen mapped plans to circulate petitions throughout the country for local option elections on liquor and beer sales.

A spokesman said that if the petitions are successful, they will be presented to the electorate September 9.

The drive, headed by Rev. Carey S. Osborne, of the Great Bethel Baptist church, is aimed at abolishing taverns and saloons which the Ministerial Association has termed "hell holes and breathing places of vice, crime and immorality".

New Mystery In Havana Murder As Yacht Sinks

HAVANA, April 21.—(INS)—The near-sinking of the yacht "Satira" gave Havana police a new mystery today in connection with the slaying of John Lester Mee, wealthy Chicago playboy.

The yacht, aboard which Mee was allegedly fatally wounded by Patricia Schmidt, "Burmese" can-can dancer, was moved to dry-dock after it began to settle with water pouring through a partially-opened cock.

The boat had been sealed by Cuban authorities Thursday after a re-enactment of the shooting by the 21-year-old Toledo, O., dancer.

In normal times, more than 150 passenger trains operate daily across the Mexican or Canadian borders of the United States.

Senate Committee Would Be Aide To G.I. Brides, Children

WASHINGTON, April 21.—(INS)—The senate appropriations committee collectively assumed today the role of aide to Dan Cupid and urged a million dollar allocation to fly 3,000 GI brides and their children to the United States.

The committee, increasing by an overall total of five million dollars the house-passed two billion 800 million dollar deficiency measure, inserted the air-transportation item.

But the senate group rejected a subcommittee recommendation that army pay allocation be increased by 25 million dollars. The committee adhered to the house-approved figure of 465 million dollars for enlisted men's payrolls until June 30.

A six million dollar allocation for school luncheon, which was turned down by the house appropriations committee but attached to the measure on the house floor, was left intact.

Army spokesmen won the senate committee's approval of the allocation for war brides. They explained that most of the 3,000 are in England and have been unable to obtain shipboard space.

Accepted by the senate committee was the house action that gave $2,158 in back pay to three government employes from whom congress withheld funds in 1943 on grounds they were "subversive".

The supreme court later held that the 1943 rider which banned their pay was unconstitutional. The men are Robert M. Lovett, former executive assistant to the governor of the Virgin Islands, and Gordon D. Watson and William Dodd, who had been employed by the Federal Communications Commission.

Steel Director Fatally Stricken

Foster died yesterday aboard a train en route from Tucson, Ariz., to New York. His body was removed from the train at Liberal.

Mrs. Olds is the wife of Irving S. Olds, chairman of the board of U. S. Steel Corporation.

Says Boy Ran Into Side Of His Car

J. M. Hilliard, of 218 North Mulberry street, says that an account of the injury of a boy, on South Mill street, as published Saturday was incorrect. He says that he did not strike the child, but that the boy ran into the side of his car.

The accident happened on South Mill street, the boy in the mishap being four year old Joseph Medura, of 1117½ South Mercer street.

METHODIST CHURCH DELEGATES EXTEND ANNUAL MEETING

HARRISBURG, April 21.—(INS)—Delegates to the central Pennsylvania conference of the Methodist church today extended their annual meeting into the sixth day to complete business sessions and receive ministerial appointments.

New charges assigned Methodist preachers in Pennsylvania will be announced by Bishop Charles W. Flint of Washington.

Cong. Walter H. Judd of Minnesota told the conference last night if the United States would "take the lead in cooperation, 80 per of the world would follow."

EARLY TRADING SHOWS GAINS

NEW YORK, April 21—(INS)—Stocks were strong in forenoon trading today. Gains of 1 to 3 points appeared in early trading.

Though activity eased off in the second hour, leaders remained near their best levels as news that the CIO and U. S. Steel have reached agreement on wage increase continued to exert a bullish influence.

First hour turnover was 430,000 shares.

Large blocks of steel issues changing hands at sharply higher prices, featured the opening. U. S. Steel jumped 2⅛. Republic Steel, Youngstown Sheet and Tube, and Bethlehem ran more than a point better. Chrysler jumped 3 points.

Rails improved large fractions. Utilities, though quiet, were firmer. Gimbel Bros., J. I. Case, Texas Corp., American Can, and Flintkote were strong. Eastman Kodak climbed 4¾ points.

Cotton futures opened more than $2 a bale higher but lost nearly half the gains on second hour hedge selling. Curb shares and bonds were higher.

Plan To Erect New Radio Tower In Turk Capital

CAMDEN, N. J., April 22—(INS)—From a radio broadcasting tower rising 750 feet into the Turkish sky, "Radio Istanbul" will soon shout.

A 150-kilowatt radio transmitter is being built for the Turkish government by R.C.A. Victor at Camden. This will provide Istanbul with a radio voice powerful enough to blanket the Middle East, Asia, most of Europe and half of Africa.

Paul C. Brown, field representative for R.C.A. International in Turkey, has just returned from Istanbul for conferences on the installation.

R.C.A. is training the Turks who will operate the station. Six electronics engineers are now learning American techniques of station operation and broadcasting methods. Also maintenance of equipment including manufacture and design of component parts.

All this they are learning in Camden.

Besides the transmitter equipment, R.C.A. is providing theatre-type studios, microphones, amplifiers, recording turntables, full test equipment, and in inter-station telephone system. In fact they are doing the whole job.

Convicted Man To Make Appeal

LISBON, O., April 21.—Erwin Brown, 39, of Irondale, awaiting a life sentence for the double killing, last December 14, of his wife, Beulah, 30, and Brade Fetty, 57, a potter, will carry his case to the appelate court if denied another Columbiana county trial, county officials said today.

Defense attorneys asked a copy of the record of the trial, which ended April 12, with a jury's recommendation of mercy after convicting Brown of first degree murder in the dual shooting. Judge Joel H. Sharp will hear arguments May 9 on the new trial motion.

NEED BIGGER STAFFS

CHICAGO—(INS)—More than half of all hospital beds in the U. S. are occupied by mental patients, yet only one doctor in 47 is a psychiatrist—trained specially to diagnose and treat mental illness. This critical need for bigger staffs at public institutions for mental care is being reflected in current action of several state legislature according to the Civil Service Assembly.

Travancore, the name of a state in India, may be translated "the place of the goddess of Prosperity."

Banquet Opens Drive For Fund

Dr. Julius Rogoff Addresses Community Dinner Sunday Evening In Temple Israel

GOAL OF $5,000 FOR SCHOOL SET

To further the building of the first medical school in Palestine by the Hebrew University, Hadassah, a community dinner was sponsored in Temple Israel Sunday evening at 6:15 o'clock. Dr. Julius Rogoff, of the Department of Endocrinology of the University of Pittsburgh, addressed the assemblage.

Stresses Need

Dr. Rogoff stressed the need for a medical school in Palestine, a need great because success of the drive, for $4,000,000 nationally, will guarantee generations of well-trained young physicians. The medical school will be an integral part of the Hebrew University and the Rothschild Hadassah University Medical Center in Palestine.

An authority on Addison's disease, Dr. Rogoff expressed the hope that he may go to Palestine before the end of the year to teach the first group of undergraduate medical students even before the school is built.

Locally the campaign, headed by Dr. Eli Kaplan, chairman, and Dr. Nathan Ginsburg, co-chairman, for $5,000 will be used to endow a laboratory at the school. To be placed there will be a plaque inscribed with the names of young Jewish men of this community who sacrificed their lives in World War II.

Outstanding Gift

Dr. Kaplan has himself made an outstanding gift in memory of his son, Joshua Kaplan, and the fund has been swelled by a number of contributions in a range of amounts

Army Fights To Overcome Cold Weather Enemy

Professor Says Existing Equipment Need Modifications To Combat Elements

Troy, N. Y., April 21.—(INS)—The U. S. army still hasn't defeated one enemy—cold weather.

The army's existing equipment needs important modifications and improvements for use under extreme weather conditions, Prof. G. Reed Shaw of Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute said today.

Professor Shaw so commented upon his return from Camp McCoy, Wis., where, as a representative of R. P. I. and the Engineering College Research Association, he had witnessed tests staged by Tack Force Frost. He also had talked with other observers who had witnessed similar operations conducted by Task Force Williwaw at Kodiak, Alaska, and by Task Force Frigid at Fairbanks, Alaska.

"The object," he said, "was to determine the adequacy of military equipments and how troops can best be clothed, fed and otherwise protected in subzero military operations.

Need Modification

"Among other things, the tests showed need of modification of important scientific instruments so that they can be more easily manipulated with heavy gloves or mittens, and of special oils for lubrication.

"Temperatures from 0 to 72 degrees below zero were recorded in Alaska this winter. At such temperatures, vehicles cannot be started and planes cannot take off. The air can be let out of truck tires, but the tires do not flatten while standing, as they're frozen stiff. Whenever men move, an ice fog is created through which one cannot see more than 15 to 20 feet. Most activity ceases."

In addition to ground and air vehicles, scientific instruments, and foods and clothing, he said the tests dealt with new types of tents and stoves and the dangers of carbon monoxide and excessive load resuling from the use of gasoline stoves.

Philadelphia After G. O. P. Convention

PHILADELPHIA, April 21—(INS)—Mayor Bernard Samuel headed a delegation which to Kansas City in an effort to capture the 1948 Republican national convention for Philadelphia.

The delegation carried a certified check for $200,000 as the Quaker City's guarantee. The Republican national committee begins a two day meeting in Kansas City on Monday.

CHILD CRUSHED BENEATH TRAILER PULLED BY FATHER

LEBANON, Pa., April 21.—(INS)—Three-year-old Leonard R. Light was crushed to death Saturday by a trailer being hauled by his father on a farm in Richland, near Lebanon.

The father had been loading furniture on the trailer in preparation for moving to another farm. He told police he felt a bump when he started the cab, and found he had run over his son.
